THE ACTION'S COOL IN RENO

Two disconsolate ducks debate whether to continue risking frostbitten feet in two inches of snow, paddle in an ice-cold pond in a Reno park, or give it all up and head south again until today's unseasonable cold snap eases. Eastern Nevada temperatures sagged far below freezing to nine degrees above zero, while snow blanked northwestern portion of the Silver State overnight. In the Sierra, chains were required on some roads this morning. The freeze and snow set new records for peculiar May weather in the area. (AP Wirephoto)

Newsmen Also Hit By Rebels

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI)— Two U.S. Marines were killed today when they were caught by rebel machinegun fire in the rebel-held zone of Santo Domingo. One other Marine and two American correspondents were wounded.

A Marine jeep pulling a panel truck apparently made a wrong turn and drove into 30th of March Street right in the heart of the rebel area. The rebels opened fire and the Marines took cover in the showroom of an automobile dealer.

WILD FIGHT

A wild firefight followed during which the two Leathernecks were killed and one wounded.

The body of one of the Marines was taken to the Embajador Hotel by Canadian telephone company employee Edward Lynch who had thought the Leatherneck to be still alive. He was dead when he arrived at the hotel near a Marine headquarters.

Word quickly spread through the hotel that the Marine had been dumped on the doorstep of the hotel by the rebels as a demonstration of the terror tactics they had threatened to use against the American military forces here.

REBEL SECTION

The two American correspondents wounded by rebel fire in the rebel section today were Al Burt, Latin editor of the Miami Herald and the Herald chief photographer Doug Kennedy. They were flown to the U.S. aircraft carrier Boxer where their condition was reported as satisfactory. Burt suffered a bullet wound in the buttock.

Today's fight broke out despite the conclusion yesterday of a "firm truce" by the Organization of American States and the OAS' unprecedented decision to send an inter-American peacekeeping force to police the Dominican Republic.

Death of the two Marines brought to 10 the number of Americans killed since the troops began landing late last week. In addition at least 58 servicemen have been wounded. The dead included four

U.N. SHUNS RUSS DEMAND FOR VOTE NOW

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—The Security Council today shunned the Soviet request for an immediate vote on its demand for immediate withdrawal of U.S. troops from the Dominican Republic.

No action was expected until the council sees the effect of the Organization of American States' decision to send its own inter-American force into the area.

Soviet Ambassador Niklai T. Fedorenko charged that the United States sought to use the OAS as a screen for its "military occupation" of the Dominican Republic.

Latins To Send Men, But Voting Is Split

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Organization of American States made a historic break from tradition early today and voted to establish an inter-American military force in the Dominican Republic.

The force will include some of the approximately 20,000 U.S. Marines and paratroopers already patrolling the Dominican capital of Santo Domingo.

As other nations contribute to the force, part of the U.S. contingent will be withdrawn, Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to the OAS, told the American nations. He said he was speaking on the authorization of President Johnson, who had been urging since last week that an inter-American military force be set up in the riot-town Caribbean republic.

Paraguay and Venezuela announced they were ready to contribute military units to the new force. Costa Rica, which has no regular army, offered police units. Argentina and Brazil, it was indicated, also are considering sending military forces.

There was no indication on the total forces the other hemisphere nations might contribute, nor the date of their probable arrival in the Dominican Republic.

NEVER BEFORE

The vote was a departure from the OAS tradition of nonintervention in the Western Hemisphere. Never before had such a joint force of American nations been created formally to go into a country beset by internal turmoil, although various nations contributed military assistance during the Cuban missile crisis in the fall of 1962.

The purpose of the joint force, the OAS declared, is to establish "a climate of peace and conciliation permitting the functioning of democratic institutions" in the Dominican Republic.

LIST OF REDS

The OAS action came on the heels of these U.S.-Dominican developments:

1. U.S. government sources made public a list of 58 alleged Communists and Castroites who it said were involved in the Communist bid to take control of the Dominican Republic.

2. A State Department spokesman, commenting on the reported installation of rebel Col. Francisco Caamano Deno as president of the Dominican Republic, said the United States feels "there is no effective government at the present time" in the riot-torn Caribbean nation.

3. President Johnson conferred at the White House with former Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico. George E. Reedy, White House press secretary, said afterwards that Johnson and Munoz discussed

Defense Abruptly Ends Klan Case

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — The defense rested its case in the civil rights murder trial of a young Ku Klux Klansman today after FBI agents testified that a gun identified as the one which killed the civil right worker was not tested for fingerprints.

Attorney Matt H. Murphy Jr., brought his testimony to an abrupt close after questioning six witnesses in an effort to discredit a story told earlier by the prosecution's chief witness, Gary Thomas Rowe Jr.

Circuit Solicitor Arthur E. Gamble Jr., the chief prosecutor, did not indicate immediately whether he would put in rebuttal testimony. If not, the case would go to the jury this afternoon in the fourth day of the trial.

The defendant, Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., 21, did not testify.

One of the defense witnesses, Mrs. Lorene Frederick, gave what could be an alibi for Wilkins.

Mrs. Frederick, who operates a cafe at Bessemer, Ala., said Wilkins, Rowe and two other Klansmen also charged with killing Mrs. Viola Liuzoz, a Detroit, Mich., civil rights worker, were in her place the night of March 25 when Mrs. Liuzzo was slain.

She said it was about 9:30 or 10 p.m., which would be about 2½ hours and approximately 125 miles away from the scene of the slaying.

On cross-examination, however, Mrs. Frederick said she wasn't sure of the time and it could have been later that night.

The FBI testimony that no fingerprint tests were made on the death weapon came after a member of the jury asked that question, even though the state already had rested its case.

FBI Agent Edward Lahey and fingerprint expert Marion Williams testified that they did not make fingerprint tests.

Prosecution testimony omitted any reference to fingerprints on the alleged death weapon, a .38 revolver, or spent shells found near the murder

Viet Military Bows To Civilians; U.S. Planes Pound Ammo Dumps

SAIGON (UPI) — South Viet Nam's powerful Armed Forces Council today formally dissolved itself in a resounding vote of confidence in the Saigon government. On the military front, 50 U.S. Air Force jets scored a "spectacularly successful" raid against Communist North Viet Nam.

The Armed Forces Council voted to disband in an emphatic endorsement of the civilian government of Prime Minister Phan Huy Quat.

Standing in front of the prime minister's office, council Secretary-General Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu read a proclamation dissolving the body, which consists of about 20 generals and colonels.

Meanwhile, a U.S. military spokesman in Saigon announced that 50 U.S. Air Force jet fighter-bombers this afternoon struck a "major ammunition dump" at Phu Van, 125 miles south of the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi.

The spokesman called the raid "spectacularly successful." Direct hits were made on four underground ammunition bunkers and four other bunkers were damaged. He said clouds of "towering black smoke" were seen by pilots.

The jets also destroyed five of the six buildings above ground by dumping 80 tons of bombs on them during the 45-minute raid. All of the planes returned safely to their bases and encountered no Communist anti-aircraft fire.

In ground fighting a U.S. spokesman disclosed three American servicemen were wounded in two separate incidents yesterday. Two were Army helicopter gunners who suffered slight wounds while killing 15 Viet Cong. The other was an Air Force mechanic hit by a Red sharpshooter while flying a defoliation mission 120 miles southwest of Saigon.

The spokesman totalled up the results of a successful government operation April 28-May 4 in the Mekong River delta 60 miles south of Saigon and said 220 Viet Cong were killed. The operation netted a vast Viet Cong arsenal of 409 weapons, 34,000 pounds of ammunition

Family Flees Pre-Dawn Fire In Art Center

Frank G. McCurdy, a San Francisco architect renting the cottage at 16 Laurel Grove Avenue, Ross, was awakened by a sharp explosion shortly before 4 a.m.

Finding smoke in the living room, McCurdy grabbed his wife and three small children, aged 6, 4 and 2, and hustled them out of the cottage through a bedroom window.

Ross Fire Chief A. T. Henrich said he could not estimate the damage done by the fire because "most of it was done by smoke, not flames, and the cottage will need a lot of cleaning up and painting."

Henrich said the fire began in the bathroom, off the kitchen, "possibly as the result of a fault in the electrical wiring system."

McCurdy said the kitchen "was pretty well melted out."

Henrich, who said his department had the fire out inside of five minutes, described what had once been a plastic clock in the living room:

"When we found it, it was just a melted plastic blob with a cord running out of it."

The McCurdy's had been renting the apartment since October from the Marin Shakespeare Festival, which leases the building from the Art and Garden Center.

Passers-By Interrupt Try At Flight From County Jail

James A. Sprague, 20, prisoner in Marin County Jail, had a fleeting taste of freedom last night but was quickly returned to jail by three volunteers of the Marin Sheriff's Marine Patrol.

Sprague, serving a six-month sentence for grand theft, was being returned to his cell by jailer Robert W. Scheiner after showering and shaving in the shower room.

Scheiner turned his head to unlock the cell and Sprague took off on a broken-field run, out the door and through the county courthouse parking lot.

As Sprague ran out the door, however, Charles W. Yancey and Gene Adachi emerged from a meeting of the marine patrol.

The two gave chase. They overtook the disappointed Sprague before he could clear the parking lot.

Officer Robert Wade of the San Rafael Police Department, also a volunteer with the marine patrol, moved in from another direction and helped subdue the prisoner.

Sprague is serving a sentence for his part in the $400 Nov. 22 robbery of John H. Weisner, bartender at the 881 Club at 881 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

He was re-booked last night on a charge of attempted escape.

Tomales Youth Wins FFA Speech Contest

SAN LUIS OBISPO (AP)—Wayne Parks of Tomales won last night's statewide Future Farmers of America public speaking competition.

Sausalito's Schools To Feel Hardest Unification Pinch

The Sausalito School District, where a majority of voters favored unification in the April 20 election, will take the biggest loss in aid under the Unruh Education Act because the unification proposal was defeated.

Robert Stannard, assistant county superintendent of schools, estimated today that aid for Sausalito School District will drop by $44,000.

Unification of all districts within the Tamalpais High School District was defeated by a vote of 10,003 to 8,566.

It will be the only district favoring education that will lose money because of the election.

Districts that opposed unification will also lose state funds according to Stannard's predictions, but some of the losses are slight. Reed and Kentfield school $1,000, Stannard said.

Stannard explained that the districts will each lose only penalty system is worked on a formula based on the assessed valuation per average daily attendance. In Sausalito this is almost twice as high in other elementary school districts within Tamalpais High School District.

Under the formula the state takes the revenue from the first 60 cents of tax per $100 assessed valuation in each district and redistributes it according to the wealth per pupil of all districts

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Governors' Charges Killed

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Former Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett—and his successor, Paul B. Johnson, the current chief executive of the Deep South state—have been freed of criminal contempt stemming from their attempts to keep a Negro from enrolling at the University of Mississippi.

Johnson

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, in a 4-3 decision announced yesterday, dropped the charges, which grew out of the 1962 integration of Ole Miss by James H. Meredith.

"No sufficient reasons exist for further prosecution of the proceedings," said the 3½-page majority opinion of Judges Richard Rives of Montgomery, Ala.; Warren Jones of Jacksonville, Fla.; Walter P. Gewin of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and Griffin B. Bell of Atlanta, Ga.

"We are doubtful, to say the least, whether we and the other judges may not have formed a fixed opinion that" Johnson and Barnett are guilty, the majority said.

Crash Kills Teacher

RICHMOND (AP) — A 22-year-old Sacramento school teacher was killed and two other persons were injured early today in a headon collision on Interstate 80 in Richmond. Burdetta J. Guthrie, driver of one of the cars, was killed. A passenger, Audrey Zwall, 21, and the other driver, Floyd R. Askins, 47, were critically injured.

Red Peril Reported

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) The governor of Korat Province said today that Communist insurgents have infiltrated his area, where three U.S. Air Force jet fighter squadrons are based.

Cambodia's Terms

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (UPI)—The government of Cambodia said today it would resume normal diplomatic relations with the United States if the United States ends the war in Viet Nam and "showed a little respect and consideration for Cambodia."

Pope Cites Lacks

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI, speaking during a special Roman Catholic week devoted to attracting more persons to religious vocations, says the Church faces the "painful" problem of a scarcity of priests and nuns.

Russ Scientist Says Cosmonaut Lost Balance

CHICAGO (AP) — A Moscow space-medicine specialist says Soviet cosmonaut Alexei Leonov lost his sense of balance, but kept his head when he became the first man to leave an orbiting satellite and float in outer space.

The specialist, Dr. Oleg Gazenko, last night then drove his point home with a dramatic 25-minute film taken aboard Voskhod 2. The film has never been viewed in America before.

Speaking through a translator, Dr. Gazenko said Leonov "did have a problem of orienting himself" when he turned his vision away from the Soviet spaceship Voskhod 2.

"His (Leonov's) orientation in space was disturbed and the direction of the spaceship was very hard (for him) to find," Dr. Gazenko added.

Tax Exemptions Get Voted Down

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A variety of tax exemptions that would have cost the state $5.8 million annually in lost revenue have been rejected by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee.

The bills killed yesterday did such things as exempting wages paid to servants from an individual's reported taxable income and eliminating the sales tax on school yearbooks.

Approved, however, were property tax exemption measures for blood and plasma and for homes of blinded veterans.

School Bill Hit By Absenteeism

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A case of legislative tired blood has temporarily benched a bill that would eliminate required daily physical education in state schools.

Sen. George Miller Jr., D-Martinez couldn't garner enough votes yesterday to move the measure out of the Senate Education Committee. So the committee agreed to his request for another try next week.

The bill would retain current physical education courses requirements, but knock out the daily rule and let schools handle the exercise any way they wish.

Tough Students May Face Suspensions

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Threatening or assaulting a teacher will result in automatic suspension of pupils in the future if a bill approved by the Senate Education Committee is enacted.

Approved unanimously yesterday, the bill by Sen. Albert S. Rodda, D - Sacramento, went to the floor.

Police Fare Poorly With Nude Photos

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Photographic evidence has been ruled inadmissible so far in the two San Francisco municipal court trials of the city's bare bosomed show girls.

Both courts ruled against the prosecution's offered photographs as the trials began Wednesday against the girls and their managers.

The courts cited almost opposite reasons.

Municipal Judge Leo R. Friedman refused to admit the photos because they were taken after police had decided to arrest the girls. Hence the photos were self-incriminating, the judge said.

Municipal Judge Leland Lazarus ruled the photos submitted in his court were inadmissible because they were taken before the girls were arrested. Hence the photos failed to document the alleged offense at time of commission, he said.

Defendants in Judge Lazarus' court are Peter Mattioli and Gino Del Prete, owners, and Carol Doda, topless dancer.

Both trials have juries of eight men and four women.

After the courts ruled against the prosecution's photographic evidence, Melvin Belli, one of the defense attorneys, said.

Committee Likes Bond Vote Trim

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate Education Committee has cleared legislation designed to lower from two-thirds to 60 per cent the voter approval needed for passage of local school bonds in certain elections.

Under the bill approved yesterday, sponsored by Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus D-Reedley, the 60 per cent requirement would hold only in primary or general elections, not in special votes.

A companion constitutional amendment not yet heard must win voter approval next year for the bill to take effect.

Former Senator Dies

Tax Break Cools Off Price Fix Ruling Sting

NEW YORK (AP) — The bulk of the nation's electrical equipment industry, caught in a price-fixing scandal in 1960, today is in the final stages of settling damages approaching $400 million.

But because of a controversial tax ruling, the companies stand to save almost half the cost through tax deductions.

The ruling has sparked a clash between the Internal Revenue Service and some congressmen who charge that General Electric, Westinghouse and the 27 other antitrust violators are getting soft treatment. In the background is the case itself, one the Justice Department said involved secret agreements over eight years to fix prices, rig bids and divide markets on electrical equipment valued at $1.75 billion annually.

The companies and 45 executives pleaded guilty or no contest to 20 antitrust indictments before a federal judge in Philadelphia who called the price-fixing "a shocking indictment" of a vast section of the economy. He sentenced seven executives to jail for 30 days in 1961 and gave 24 others suspended sentences. Fines totaled $1.9 million.

That was only the beginning. The price-fixing by companies supposed to be in competition covered products ranging from tiny $2 insulators to huge, multimillion-dollar turbine generators. Their customers sued for triple damages under the Clayton Antitrust Act, claiming they were overcharged.

The federal government, a big customer, settled for $8.8 million from 12 companies. More than 2,000 damage suits poured into the courts from private utilities and municipal power agencies. Most have been settled, almost all by negotiation.

An Associated Press poll of 14 of the 29 companies indicated the final settlement cost may total about $400 million. Almost all of this will come from the four top companies involved. They have paid or earmarked roughly $390 million.

The controversial tax ruling made last July by the Internal Revenue Service allows the companies to deduct the cost of damage settlements as "ordinary and necessary" business expense.

Only settlements made with the federal government and federal agencies weren't deductible, said the IRS.

Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., and House Judiciary Chairman Emmanuel Celler, D-N.Y., denounced the ruling as a "tax giveaway" and demanded an investigation.

The Internal Revenue Service said the antitrust laws on damage suits were meant to reimburse the victim, not to punish the violater. As remedial damages, said the IRS, they are tax-deductible.

A report on the ruling is expected to be submitted to the Joint Congressional Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation this month.

Magazine Tax Proposal Killed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Taxing magazines isn't the way to help finance California Education, the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee has decided.

Yesterday, it killed by sending to between-sessions study a proposed magazine tax sponsored by Assemblyman W. Byron Rumford, D - Berkeley. He said it would have brought in almost $2 million in revenue.

Opponents said such a levy would be unfair and harmful to the flow of information to the public.

Craft Nearing Mars

WASHINGTON (AP)—The space agency said today the distance between the Mars-bound Mariner IV spacecraft and the earth is increasing at the rate of about 1 million miles a day. Mariner is currently 72 million miles from earth. When it makes its closest approach to Mars on July 14, Mariner will be 134 million miles from earth.

Scientist Says Moon May Be Frozen Sun

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The moon may be as hard as metal except for a few inches of its surface, according to Dr. L. H. Aller, chairman of the department of astronomy at UCLA.

Aller said Wednesday that he believes there is a good chance the moon's composition is more like the sun than the earth.

"This resemblance holds only for the nonvolatile elements of course — elements that are solid at ordinary temperatures," he said.

The scientist added that he thinks gaseous elements have escaped from the moon, and elements which are gases in the sun are to be found as solids in the moon.

He compared the hardness and solidity of the moon to a metal shot tossed by athletes.

"The first few inches of the moon's surface may have been changed a good deal by meteor hits and solar radiation," he said, "but if we go down a few feet we will probably find that the composition is like the sun's."

He conceded that proof of his theory must await a manned landing on the moon.

NAACP Hits Mormon Church

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — The Utah chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People planned yesterday to ask for national censure by the group against the Mormon Church.

John Driver said the Utah group would present two resolutions in the national convention in Denver June 28.

He said one resolution requests ministers of non- white nations to refrain from issuing visas to missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

The other requests the church to make its position on civil rights, "unmistakable and clear to all."

South Americans Riot Against U.S.

Demonstrations also flared in Venezuela, Colombia, Peru and Chile.

Most of the Argentine demonstrators were leftist students, but police said Communists joined in and touched off the violence.

Chanting anti-Yankee slogans, the mob hurled incendiary bombs and rocks at mounted police, smashed shop windows and set chairs and tables ablaze in sidewalk cafes.

Federal Police Chief Nicolas Rodriguez said the students had been given permission to demonstrate, but that Communists set off the violence.

A group of congressmen from the pro-Peron Justicialist party condemned the visit of W. Averill Harriman, President Johnson's envoy touring Latin America to explain the U.S. action in the Dominican Republic.

Low Bid Announced On State Aqueduct

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A Palo Alto firm has turned in the low bid of $11.26 million to build part of the 444 - mile aqueduct that will carry Northern California water to the south.

The low bid announced yesterday, submitted by Wunderlich Co., was almost $500,000 under the state's estimate. The job is to build 18 miles of the aqueduct from Alameda County to near Tracy in San Joaquin County.

'INVASION' PROTEST

Cal Students Burn Draft Cards, March

BERKELEY (AP) — Forty University of California students burned their draft cards in front of the Berkeley draft board yesterday in protest of "the invasion of the Dominican Republic."

While Berkeley police photographers snapped their photos, the students squatted in a huddle like a football team and placed their burning cards in a small pile.

Hundreds of students marched on the draft board after a noon rally at the UC Berkeley campus at which student and faculty members assailed the U. S. move into the Dominican Republic.

Leaders of the group said they staged the "symbolic protest" to mourn "the dead Dominican freedom fighters."

James Petras, leader of the march, asked Mrs. Head to send the coffin to Washington.

"I don't know what to do," Mrs. Head said. "I really don't."

"It's purely a symbolic protest," one demonstrator explained.

"We have been told we can get new cards if we apply for them."

Intellectuals, he said, must "refuse to affiliate themselves in any way with the United States government" in the Dominican Republic problem, and added, "we resign from this horrible war!"

A manifest signed by more than 50 university professors was circulated. It protested "the recent invasion of the Dominican Republic by U. S. troops. . ." and said the move was a ". . .return to gunboat diplomacy. . ."

TV Organ Star Faces Lawsuit

Korla Pandit, Marin organist-pianist and recording artist, was sued in Marin Superior Court yesterday for $25,000 as result of a traffic accident last September.

Frederick G. Rackey, of 121 Piper Court, Fairfax, alleges Pandit drove a car in negligent manner near the Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Olema Road intersection on Sept. 7, causing Rackey to swerve his motorcycle and fall.

Sausalito Firemen Slate Open House

Open house will be held Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Sausalito main fire station on Johnson Street and at the Spencer Avenue station in connection with Fire Service Week.

Chief Charles E. Masten said there will be a demonstration of the elevated aerial platform truck at the main station.

Newsman Gets Inside Look At Red China

By CHARLES LYNCH

SHENYANG (Mukden), China (AP) — The easiest way to locate this place is to say that had MacArthur bombed across the Yalu River during the Korean War, this is where his planes would have headed.

Shenyang is the capital of Liaoling Province, the traditional industrial area of China, still going strong but now rivaled by the new industrial centers springing up all over this burgeoning land.

The Japanese used Shenyang as their headquarters during their 14-year occupation of Manchuria, when they set up the puppet Manchukuo empire here. The city once was known as Mukden, but that name has Christian overtones that the Chinese do not care to remember.

This was the jumping-off point for Japanese incursions into the rest of China, and much later, it was the jumping-off point in the other direction for the Chinese troops on their way to the Korean War.

Our hotel, built in 1925 in the old European fashion, used to be known as the Ta Ho — now, it's the Liaoling. Nothing about the hotel has changed, but the changes in Shenyang are manifold.

Not that they've altered the Old City, the palaces and tombs of the Manchus who first set up shop here in 1644, subsequently moved to Peking, and who ruled China until 1912. The city itself is said to date back 1,800 years, but to its present occupants, it is 16 years old — dating, as almost everything else in China does, from the Communist "liberation."

The "cathedral" of Shenyang is the industrial exhibition hall, built in 1959, filled with machines of a complexity that gratify the Chinese mind, and all made by Chinese hands.

Among the good things of the old China, it is generally agreed, good housing for workers and peasants was definitely not included. And it is in this area that the new Shenyang is most impressive, since it includes four vast workers' villages.

Here, tens of thousands of industrial workers are housed in conditions that rival anything similar in Asia. North American standards do not apply, and the Chinese make no such claim — but the leap from the old housing to the new is a great leap forward, indeed.

The apartment buildings, three stories high, stretch for blocks in every direction. I picked a doorway at random and found myself the guest of Ten Shi-chin, who earns $40 a month as a leading worker at the Shenyang metallurgical machinery factory.

The welcome was warm. The living quarters were Spartan but neat. One room serves as living room, dining room and bedroom for Ten, his wife, and their four children — the parents in one broad bed, the children, aged up to 12 years, in the other. The beds, covered with straw matting, become part of the living space by day, in the Chinese fashion.

And in the Chinese fashion, this was living—gas burners in the kitchen, an electric light bulb, a radio, a clock, and a bicycle. The rent is $1.20 a month.

Across the street is the department store where eggs are three cents apiece, cabbage five cents each, and pork is 35 cents a pound. Strong drink is $1.10 a bottle, but canned fruit costs 50 cents a can and rates as a special treat for the kids. Refrigeration is no problem — the Chinese housewife shops on a meal-by-meal basis, and likes it that way.

The only unhappy faces I've seen here are those of the rickshaw men but they, I am told, are not unhappy—they are just concentrating on their work, secure in the knowledge that "there's a motor in their future," somewhere up ahead.

OAS

4. The number of U.S. troops in the Dominican Republic was put at 19,363 by the Defense Department. It said these included 12,439 Army men — mainly paratroopers from the 82nd Airborne Division — and 6,924 Marines. The total was 5,363 more than the 14,500 announced Sunday night by President Johnson.

The United States proposed originally that the OAS set up an inter-American force for the Dominican Republic, but the measure was revised by amendments from other countries before its final adoption.

Fourteen countries voted for the revised proposal, five — Uruguay, Mexico, Chile, Peru and Ecuador — voted against it and Venezuela abstained.

Earlier, the Venezuelans had attempted — and failed — to amend the resolution to say that the inter-American force would replace the American troops in the Dominican Republic.

In releasing the list of 58 alleged Communists and Castroites, the official sources said the information was part of what President Johnson had available when he declared Sunday night that Communists had seized the revolution started April 24 by supporters of ousted President Juan Bosch.

The need to prevent a Communist takeover in the Dominican Republic was cited by Johnson as a main reason for the dispatch of U.S. troops last week.

Alcoholism Climbing Among Bulgarians

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — Alcoholism, especially among young people, is increasing in Communist Bulgaria, the party paper Rabotnichesko Delo reported.

The paper did not disclose figures, but said that more than 3,000 alcoholics had to be taken to hospitals in Sofia in the last two years. Rabotnichesko Delo demanded closure of some of the bars and the help of police "to prevent that our youth falls prey to alcoholism."

Cars, Disease Are Related

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —A dangerous correlation exists between epilepsy and traffic accidents, according to the United Cerebral Palsy Association of San Francisco.

The association announced that a study showed 15 per cent of epileptics interviewed had the condition because of an injury and more than one-third of the injuries were received in an auto accident.

paratroopers, five Marines and a sailor.

The rebel forces have warned repeatedly that any Marine or U.S. paratrooper found in the rebel area would be "slaughtered." Last night a rebel radio said the Dominican people must cooperate in the "patriotic task of killing in blood and burning foreign invaders and their lackeys."

The Independence Square action was the only major fighting reported and this was along the Marine defense perimeter around the international refuge zone. A spokesman for the 82nd Airborne Regiment said the paratroopers experienced no shooting since 10 o'clock last night.

There was sniper firing in the Marine sector.

The rebel terror tactics and the refusal to obey the cease-fire appeared to be new evidence of Communists taking over what started out as a popular revolution agianst the military junta which has ruled the Dominican Republic since it overthrew President Juan Bosch and sent him into exile.

Czechs Claiming World's Record In Beer Drinking

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia claims a world record in beer drinking with a 124 liter per capita consumption in 1964.

Consumption rose by 25.6 liters compared with 1960, the Czechoslovak news agency CTK reported.

Beer was by far the most popular beverage. Next followed sodawater and lemonades with 22.4 liters. Wine ranged fifth with 4.8 liters.

Bicycle Thief Eludes Owner

Young Byron Mayo looked out his window at 240 Cascade Drive, Mill Valley at 8:30 p.m. yesterday and saw a boy stealing his bicycle.

While his mother telephoned police, Byron chased the boy to Eugene Street, where the thief eluded him and wisappeared.

Mrs. Byron W. Mayo, Byron's mother told police later that, in checking their garage, they found a girl's bicycle the thief apparently left behind. Police said it belonged to Chandler Hannon of 955 Lovell Avenue, who retrieved it.

Juvenile Offense Reports Total 263

Juvenile offense reports received by the sheriff's office in April totaled 263, or 10 more than in March, Harvey E. Teague, sheriff's juvenile inspector, said today.

Largest categories were runaways and malicious mischief, a total of 37 each. Petty thefts were 28, and curfew violations, 16.

Fifty planeloads of combat-ready U.S. Army paratroopers of the 173rd Airborne Brigade landed at the Bien Hoa and Vung Tau air bases outside Saigon today, virtually completing the transfer of a brigade of 3,500 paratroopers. A few more will arrive later by ship.

The decision of the Armed Forces Council to disband was taken yesterday at a council meeting at Tan Son Nhut Air Base. It was considered certain to win the endorsement of U.S. officials here.

About 200 government officials and newsmen were present for today's ceremonies. The council had been in power since last September, when military commanders put down an attempted coup against then prime minister, Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh.

The council was formed to keep Khanh from manipulating the armed forces for the sake of his own political ambitions.

Khanh was ousted by the generals last February and sent into polite exile as a roving ambassador. He went to New York as an observer at the United Nations.

VISIT, FISHING

Peace Worker Going Back

By CHARLINE SUTTON

A "comfortable adventure, to enjoy some of the things I didn't have time for" is what former Peace Corpsman Hagen Bruckner looked forward to as he left his home in San Anselmo yesterday for the small Colombian village where he spent 20 months as a "community development" volunteer building schools.

The 24-year-old son of Dr. Martha Bruckner of 168 Camino de Hererra will return to his "adopted" village of Miraflores in the foothills of the Andes after a year's stay stateside during which he earned money for the trip by working in construction.

Going back on a pleasure jaunt to the scene of former volunteer service might well be unique in Peace Corps history, but the unassuming Bruckner hopes "no fuss will be made about it" and plans to "just melt into the surroundings" as he journeys about Colombia to renew friendships, to hunt and trade for jaguar and ocelot skins.

After flying to Bogota, he will travel by bus the 250 miles to a mountain village of 2,500 inhabitants where he will visit with Peace Corps members, now completing the nine schools planned and started during the two years he served there. Five schools were built by the townspeople under Bruckner's supervision and some of these construction costs were paid by residents of Marin, including many of Bruckner's former College of Marin classmates, who responded to an Independent-Journal article telling of his work.

Later this month Bruckner will begin the "adventure" part of his trip. Bruckner and a guide will take a small boat, probably a canoe, down a raging river, flooded by the seasonal rain torrents, through the wild Llanos country to hunt and trade for big cat skins and maybe look up a primitive Indian or two.

"We will have to go by boat," he explained, although his first Llanos excursion during Peace Corps days was made on horseback. "Now the rainy season is starting and it would be too muddy to travel overland."

The Llanos, vast grassy plains lying east of the Andes and north of Bogota, are very similar to what the great western plains of the United States must hahve been during frontier days, Bruckner said.

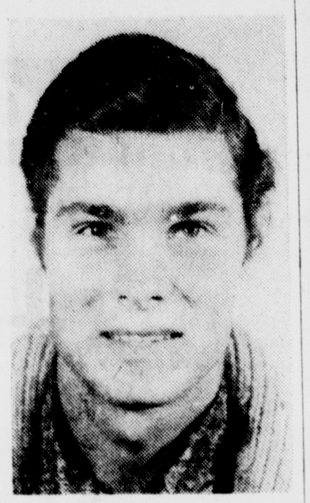

"One can ride for a day without seeing a single house, much less a village. Wherever a man decides to settle and build fences, that is his property. Some of the ranches are spread as much as 250 kilometers apart," he related.

Along the Meta River, however, which courses through the plains, small villages cluster. There Bruckner will do his trading and visiting to Indians, many of whom used poisoned arrows and spears for hunting jaguar, ocelot and men.

How long will the young adventurer stay?

"That is difficult to say." He paused. "Perhaps two months . . . with luck, perhaps longer. There is so much I want to see and explore and learn about Colombia, and it is a very big and wonderful country."

One thing is certain. Hagen Bruckner is one Peace Corpsman whose enthusiasm for his "adopted" country wasn't dampened by hard work and the rigorous, often primitive, conditions of Peace Corps living.

3-Stage Titan 'Through Gate'

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A Titan-3A "switch engine" rocket raced into orbit with two satellites today on the first leg of a record-breaking string of space acrobatics calling for three orbital changes.

The sleek Air Force booster, keyed to American's soldier-in-space program, first soared into a low orbit around earth and then was to zip into three other paths around the globe within seven hours.

"It's through the gate," said Brig. Gen. Joseph S. Bleymaier, referring to the precise speed it needed to reach orbit.

The Titan's 7,000-pound third stage payload unit then moved into position to perform its next feat.

Driver Reports Beer Is Stolen From Truck

Curtis H. Brown, truck driver for Lucky Lager Distributors Agency, told San Rafael Police yesterday that three teen-agers stole three cases of beer off his truck yesterday while it was parked in downtown San Rafael.

Brown said he gave chase when the youngsters raced off in a car, but he could not catch them.

Wristwatch Stolen

REDWOOD BOYS CLAIM RECORD FOR EXERCISE

Some 150 boys, from freshmen to seniors, participated in the calisthenics in the class that ended just before noon today. Al Endriss, physical education department head, reported the boys jumped for 30 minutes and completed 1,600 "jumping jacks," a type of exercise in which persons clap their hands over their heads while jumping up and down.

"We'll challenge any gym class in the county to beat that number," said Endriss.

Bolinas-Stinson Beach School District, where a majority opposed unification, will lose about $26,000. Larkspur School District will lose only $1,000. Nicasio will lose $5,000, and Ross will lose $1,500.

Other districts which approved unification will gain money. Fairfax will gain $15,000; Mill Valley, $48,000, and San Anselmo, $44,000.

Stannard said the figures include the $15 per average daily attendance granted to districts voting for the unification. The estimates were based on current assessed valuation and on a 97 per cent average daily attendance figure.

Stannard said that if Sausalito had voted against unification it would have lost $57,000. On the other hand, if the unification measure had passed, Sausalito would have gained $44,000 rather than lost it.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY in the Heart of our County
Marin pioneers chose a site in the heart of our county as a final resting place for their families. Today this location—at the west end of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael—is still convenient to all Marin points.
Marinites who choose Mount Tamalpais do so with the assurance that its beauty will grow with the years. The interest from a quarter-million dollar endowment fund—twice the legal requirement—is dedicated to the constant care and improvement of this 57-acre site.
Perhaps—like many Marin families—you wish to make your own final arrangements to spare others difficult decisions. If so, we invite your inquiry or a personal visit.

UNDERSEA RESCUE VEHICLE

Drawing shows how deep diving vehicle, being developed by the Navy at New London, Conn., would operate in rescuing 12 to 14 men at a time from crippled submarine in ocean depths down to 6,000 feet. Vehicle would hook up an airtight link with sunken sub and take aboard survivors. Operated by two men, the rescue craft would be about 40 feet long with electric motors located outside its high-strength steel hull. (AP Wirephoto)

Hospital Shutdowns Supported

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today supported President Johnson's proposed closing of veterans facilities and approved his request for $105,577,000 for public building construction in 31 cities.

Its action was in connection with a $14,086,408,000 appropriation bill financing 24 federal agencies and programs for the fiscal year starting July 1. The bill is scheduled for House debate next week. Its total is $444,615,000 less than the President requested.

The committee left the way open to change its mind about the planned shutdown of 11 veterans hospitals and some other veterans facilities, a proposal that has stirred up considerable congressional opposition.

The committee disapproved funds to keep the facilities operating after June 30. It said there will be ample opportunity for the House to restore the funds before June 30.

HAYDEN FINDS EXAGGERATED DEATH REPORT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., 87-year-old president pro tempore of the senate, wrote a note to Marvin H. Bernstein and Walter F. Murphy of Princeton University to inform them that a political science textbook they wrote had some wrong information.

"My attention," wrote Hayden, "has been directed to the footnote on page 312 of the fourth edition of 'American Democracy in Theory and Practice,' which states that I died in 1962.

"This information is not in accord with the latest edition of the Congressional Directory, which indicates that I was re-elected in 1962 to be a senator from Arizona for a term of six years."

Canary Isles Airline Crash Fatal For 30

SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE, Canary Islands (UPI)— An Iberia Airlines Super Constellation crashed last night while landing in a fog and burst into flames. Authorities said 30 persons were killed and 18 injured, many of them critically.

The plane with 39 passengers from Madrid and nine crewmen touched down on the runway at mountain rimmed Los Rodeos airport but veered off to one side and crashed. There were reports it had hit machinery being used to improve the runway.

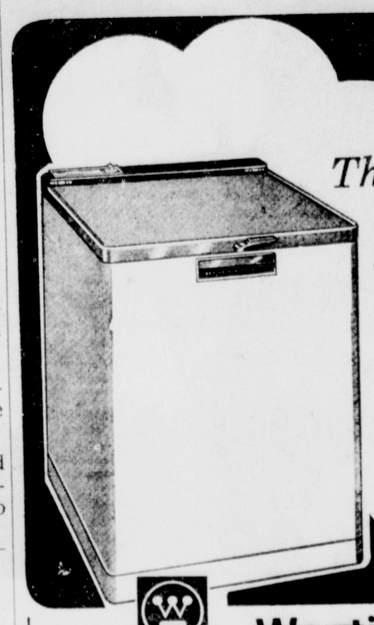

The dead included 10 foreigners but no Americans were aboard.

A spokesman issued a revised casualty list which said 28 persons died in the crash and two more in a hospital.

Folk Music Concert To Aid Civil Rights

A folk music concert to raise funds for civil rights work in the south will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday in the college of Marin gymnasium, sponsored by the college's Friends of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

Performing will be the Berkeley String Quartet (a country and western music group), the New Albion Trio, George Skellariou, Ronald Chinn and Grover Haines.

Fairfax Officials Get Pat On Back, Dinner

Fairfax city councilmen, commissioners and school board trustees were treated to a full course of dinner and compliments last night by the Fairfax Merchants Assn.

Reason for the dinner — as stated by association president William T. Benson — was "to honor the members of the town who donate their services unsung and unheard."

And they were honored, from salad through sundae.

All 24 of the public servants were introduced and given the chance to bow to a round of applause. Some were given the option of speaking to the captive audience of 140. Most took it.

Daniel M. Miller, chairman of the planning commission, took the opportunity to pass on a few complaints about citizen participation in city planning.

"No town can be planned advantageously without the full knowledge and consent of the citizens of the town," he said. "I am sometimes tempted to conclude that the citizens of Fairfax have complete confidence in the planners because they rarely appear at our meetings."

He sat down to a full round of applause.

Mayor Frank L. Lawrence thanked the merchants for their appreciation and then took time to list "recent progress we have made here in Fairfax."

This included remodeling the city hall, abandonment of full reading of the minutes at council meetings, and a job analysis study of city positions.

County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen was there, spinning off anecdotes and complimenting the City of Fairfax.

"I have a soft spot in my heart for Fairfax. I think it's the area that got me elected," he said, labeling the town "the gateway to West Marin."

Merchant George M. Cowell, credited with planning the dinner, closed out the speeches, saying:

"I have always felt that people who enter politics are performing one of the highest services. Unfortunately there are very few times when the public has the chance or desire to show its appreciation."

Overnight Trail Ride Is Planned

California State Horsemen's Assn. will sponsor an overnight trail ride May 15-16 from the ghymkana arena of the Pacheco Ranch at 1695 Indian Valley Road, Novato, through adjacent properties.

Reservations for the ride, which begins at 10 a.m., may be made through Stanley K. Gobbin, 731 Delmar Avenue, Novato.

Behr Says Building Delay To Be Costly

Chairman Peter H. Behr of the county board of supervisors told the Mill Valley Optimist Club at a luncheon today that a "two-year delay in construction of the new Civic Center wing would increase its cost by more than one million dollars."

He added, "Inflation is the enemy we must combat and that is one reason why the bond issue, Proposition A on the June ballot, deserves our overwhelming support.

Employees To Vote On Union Plan

Employees at Saegertown-Western Division of Glass-Tite Industries Inc., 27 Jordan Street, San Rafael, will vote Tuesday on whether to be represented in collective bargaining by the International Assn. of Machinists.

Frank P. Bottarini, secretary-treasurer of Machinists Local 238, said about 73 employees will vote in the election, approved by the National Labor Relations Board at the local's request.

A similar election at the Fairchild Semiconductor plant in San Rafael is planned within the next 60 days, but its date has not been set by the NLRB, Bottarini said.

That vote was originally set for April 1, but was postponed when the union filed a complaint with the NLRB that Fairchild was indulging in "unfair labor practices." The complaint is still under review.

Burglary Defendant Gets Year In Jail

A one-year county jail term was meted out to Larry Edward Armijo, 27, San Francisco, in Marin Superior Court yesterday for burglary.

Thief Attempts Cleopatra Trick

After receiving word yesterday of a burglary, two officers chased a man from the second floor into the attic of a house. When they entered, the attic was empty except for a dusty carpet rolled up in a corner.

Detecting a bulge in the rug, the officers unrolled it. The bulge, police said, was Donald Wilson, 19. He was charged with breaking and entering.

San Rafael Girl Hired For Las Vegas Revue

Klan Dragon Loses Vote; Negroes Gain

ATLANTA (UPI) — Ku Klux Klan Grand Dragon Calvin Craig lost his bid for a seat in the Georgia legislature yesterday in a topsy turvy special primary election that nominated 11 Negroes and threw out lieutenants of former segregationist Gov. Marvin Griffin.

Among the Negroes nominated was Julian Bond, a publicist for the civil rights Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

The election was to name Democratic and Republican candidates for 141 of the 205 seats as the result of a federal court ordered legislative act to reapportion the House. No other offices were affected.

State GOP Drafts Anti-Poverty Program

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assembly Republicans today offered a tax relief plan to stimulate business investment, along with a variety of other proposals to provide jobs for California's 470,000 unemployed.

Revisions in unemployment insurance benefits, programs for retraining to meet the challenge of automation and similar suggestions to boost the economy were among the package ready for unveiling by the GOP lower house caucus.

Assembly Minority Leader Robert T. Monagan, R - Tracy, and Assemblyman Houston I. Flournoy, R-Claremont, called a news conference to disclose the details.

Earlier, Flournoy outlined the plan to a reporter in general terms.

He called for tax relief to induce businessmen to come into California and open new plants and stores.

A similar plan has been proposed by Assemblyman Robert T. Stevens, R - Los Angeles, chairman of the GOP Assembly caucus tax study committee.

GOP suggestions on automation "will take advantage of new developments," Flournoy said.

As the Republicans offered their plan, latest figures showed that California's unemployment rate was 5.5 per cent of the work force of 7.09 million.

Democratic Gov. Brown already has offered his own unemployment insurance program, calling for broader coverage, higher benefits and elimination of what he called loopholes in the law.

It would boost payments to some 377,000 people, who now receive a maximum of $55 a week. His bill would raise the maximum payment to $66, the first hike since 1959.

That would mean a tax increase for employers who pay for the plan. Brown would also bring farm workers under unemployment insurance, which would cost growers $48 million annually at first.

Republican proposals to meet the unemployment problem came after the Assembly Ways and Means Committee offered a program to help put the aerospace industry to work on civilian problems. Brown also has moved in the same direction, giving state contracts to aerospace firms to work on solving some of the state's problems.

Drowsy Driver Injured, Auto Ruined By Fire

A San Francisco bartender was cut on arms, face and chest about 12:55 a.m. today when his car smashed into a concrete abutment and burst into flames on Tamalpais Drive overpass over Highway 101 in Corte Madera.

Rego Manuel Jr., 45, was treated at Marin General Hospital after he was found dazed, standing beside his flaming car. Police said he apparently fell asleep at the wheel. His westbound car drifted to the right into the concrete gore at the start of the ramp leading onto Highway 101 southbound.

The Corte Madera fire department put out the fire, but the car, a 1958 convertible, was a total loss.

Anti-Castroites Map Red Camps

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A map of Cuba pinpointing 13 purported Communist training camps for subversives was distributed today by Revolutionary Unity, a Cuban exile organization.

Described as a training site for Dominican revolutionaries was the Minas de Frio camp in easternmost Oriente Province, nearest to the Dominican Republic.

The exile group said Dominicans also were reported to have trained at a camp near Trinidad, on the southern coast of central Cuba. It said Central Americans, Haitians and British Guianese also drilled there.

Governor Urges Bay Fill Controls

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to curb the haphazard filling of San Francisco Bay went before its second committee today with a strong push from Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

The Senate Finance Committee planned a hearing this morning on the bill, which would create a San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission to control bay filling while preparing a long-range plan.

Brown announced Wednesday he would ask the legislature for a budget augmentation of $185,000 to finance the first nine months of the commission's operations.

The bill by Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, cleared the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee after weeks of testimony.

"The continued haphazard, uncoordinated filling of the bay can lead only to aesthetic and economic disaster," Brown said.

"The present uncoordinated manner in which the bay is being filled threatens the bay itself and is therefore inimical to the welfare of the nearly four million people who live in the area."

Brown called the bill "an essential step" to preserve the bay.

The bill cleared its first committee hurdle in a tough form despite numerous efforts to dilute it. The committee rejected numerous amentments sought by different public and private interests.

As recommended by a study commission that surveyed the situation during the past year, the bill would create a 29-member San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission with dual long-range and short-range jobs.

For the future, its task would be to prepare a regional plan for bay filling and dredging and development of the 280 miles of shoreline. It would make a progress report to the legislature in 1967 and a final report in 1969.

In the meantime, it would be empowered to grant or deny fill permits.

The bill proposes a commission of 25 voting members: Four from state agencies, two from bay transportation and pollution agencies, nine from bay counties, three from cities, and seven public members.

In addition, two federal representatives and two legislators would work with the commission. It would take 13 affirmative votes to approve a fill permit. However, to force members to attend meetings, it provides for an automatic granting of a permit if the commission fails to act within 60 days.

Crippled Boy Dies In Race Revenge Act

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 15-year - old crippled white boy, walking home from school, was beaten and stabbed to death yesterday by three Negro teenagers who, police said today, selected him at random to revenge a non - fatal attack by some white boys on a Negro youth.

The dead boy, Elmer Thomas Rush Jr., and his assailants did not know each other, nor was Rush involved in the previous incident, said Capt. Joseph Golden of the homicide squad.

Golden said Labery Mitchell, 15; Robert Bell, 17, and James Tinsley, 17, told him they selected Rush as he crossed 11th St. near his South Philadelphia home. Golden said Bell hit Rush, Tinsley then punched him and Mitchell stabbed him with the four - inch blade of a pocket knife.

Rush, one of two children, was uncoordinated muscularly. His family said he could not have protected himself.

Brown All But Announces He'll Seek His Third Term

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Edmund G. Brown left little doubt at a San Francisco Democratic dinner last night that he intends to seek a third term as governor of California.

"The reception," said Brown, "is so warm it would make a snowman run."

The governor has frequently said he would make his formal announcement when the first snow flies in the Sierra.

"We Democrats are not going to be pushovers," he told the 1,200 who attended the $100-a-plate "Salute to Governor Brown."

He urged his political proteges to "get out and get going" and challenged the Republicans "to bring on your candidate."

The dinner added about $100,000 to the Democrats' campaign fund, officials estimated.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, often at odds with Brown, was at the dinner and added words of praise.

"There is room enough in the Democratic party for all of us," said Unruh.

Brown said debate within the Democratic party is "healthy and constructive."

The $100,000 raised will be used toward erasing a $500,000 Democratic Party debt. Much of the debt stems from the 1964 U.S. Senate campaign.

"The Democratic Party should not be in the business of paying off deficits incurred by candidates," Unruh said critically of this.

"We need the money for 1966. Republicans have shown they are willing to spend $60,000 to $70,000 to knock off our assemblymen in marginal districts and twice that much in marginal state senate districts. We must do the same or they will end up reapportioning the Assembly in 1971."

San Francisco's Mayor John F. Shelley, a former U.S. congressman, spoke caustically of actor Ronald Reagan, mentioned prominently as the Republican gubernatorial nominee in 1966.

"Reagan is a fantastic quick-change artist," Shelley said.

"A few years ago when I knew him in the labor movement, he passed himself off as an ultra-liberal. Today he's an ultra-con servative.

Realtors Held Not Concerned With Race Bias

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Maurice G. Reed of Berkeley, Calif., president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, said yesterday it is not for real estate men to be concerned about racial discrimination in housing.

Reed, who spoke before the Greater Hartford Board of Realtors, opposed legislation seeking to eliminate housing discrimination.

"We have declared that it is not the function of realtors to determine the racial, creedal or ethnic composition of any area or neighborhood," Reed said, referring to the national association's policy statement.

Property Owners Plan On Hiring

Directors of the Marin Property Owners Assn. yesterday empowered a committee headed by Joseph E. Sheeks to interview applicants and hire an executive director.

Action on electing three new directors for the newly formed organization was postponed.

Membership chairman Edward Halperin reported the association has more than 60 members and has collected over $6,500.

A membership "dinner rally" meeting was scheduled for May 27 at Dominic's Restaurant, San Rafael. A no-host cocktail party will be held at 7 p.m. Dinner will be at 7:45 p.m. Guest speaker will be Jordan L. Martinelli Sr.

Algeria Jail, Torture Told By Bay Area 'Progressive'

NEW YORK (AP) — A 26-year-old San Francisco psychologist arrived today with a tale of beatings and torture he said he suffered at the hands of Algerian secret police.

Speaking from a wheel chair, Dr. Ronald B. Ramsey, a clinical psychologist, told newsmen at Kennedy Airport he suffered a fractured vertebra in a six - hour beating he said he undertook "while suspended from a ceiling by a rope."

The doctor, a slender man with brown hair and beard, said he had been deported from Algeria after spending 4½ months in prison on unspecified charges.

He said he could not say why he was jailed because "my views are the same as the Algerian government."

Ramsey, who described himself as a "strong progressive," said he also was tortured by electricity applied to his body with two wire prongs.

As a result of his confinement and torture, he said he could walk only with "extreme pain," and had constant headaches and other ailments.

But Ramsey, who said he is a charter member of the Berkeley, Calif., chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality, stated that he felt no bitterness.

"I only have love, admiration and respect for the government of Ben Bella. If I regain my health I would be willing to go back to Algeria," he asserted.

Club Site Bought In San Geronimo

Final transactions were completed last night by the San Geronimo Valley Assn. board of directors for purchase of four lots at Aztec and Guadalupe streets in Forest Knolls for a clubhouse site, according to Mrs. Jean Bevans, director from Forest Knolls.

Director Albert Schivo of Lagunitas, chairman of the fund raising committee for the clubhouse, was appointed to head a committee to study construction plans.

Art work of San Geronimo Valley artists will be on display at the Lagunitas School after the next meeting of the board at 8p.m. May 17.

Talk To Firemen

Malvern Aust, chairman of the retirement committee of the California State Firemen's Assn., will speak on "workmen's compensation and retirement" at a meeting at the Kentfield Fire House at 8 PM May 15. The program is sponsored by the auxiliary to the Marine County Assn. of Fire Departments.

Although the Magna Carta singedin 1215, guaranteed the legal rights of freemen, a privileged class in the 13th Century, it took another 400 years before the common people of Britain secured the same privileges.

Dr. Sheppard's Lawyer Plans New Appeal

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Attorney F. Lee Bailey, determined to keep Dr. Sam Sheppard out of Ohio Penitentiary, thinks the case will end up in the U.S. Supreme Court.

Sheppard's long fight for permanent freedom was set back when the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati yesterday ordered him back to prison. The vote was 2-1.

"I was somewhat surprised," Bailey said in Boston. "I thought one of the judges might go against us, but never two."

Bailey said "The case has got to end up in the U.S. Supreme Court. I will file a notice of appeal in the next 20 days, and this should stay execution of the order to return Sam to the penitentiary."

Sheppard was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1954 for the bludgeon slaying of his first wife, Marilyn, at their suburban Bay Village home along Lake Erie. He was released last July after 10 years when U.S. District Judge Carl Weinman ruled he had not received a fair trial because of publicity."

Four From Marin Named To Academies

Four young men from Marin County have been appointed to enter U.S. service academies this year.

Rep. Don H. Clausen of the First Congressional District announced the following appointees.

Christopher J. Carlson, son of Capt. and Mrs. A. L. Carlson of 111 Columbia Avenue, Mill Valley. Carlson will report to the Naval Academy on June 30.

Robert J. Carney, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. John M. Carney of 1021 Las Raposas Road, San Rafael, will report to the Air Force Academy on June 28.

Walter C. Sharpe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sharpe of 222 West Baltimore Avenue, Larkspur, will report to the Merchant Marine Academy on Aug. 22.

Donald Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Stevenson of 24 Nave Court, Novato, will report to the Military Academy, West Point, on July 1.

Clausen appointed seven youths from the First District to service academies this year on the basis of results of various examinations. In addition to the four from Marin, one each was named from Humboldt, Mendocino, and Sonoma counties. One appointment to the Military Academy is pending, awaiting completion of data on one of the finalists.

You'll be thrilled by the new, easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim and yet completely comfortable. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight or your waistline is larger than 32 inches, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The girdle itself is of "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It is so comfortable, but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim," in both girdle and panty versions, is the peak achievement of the California designer-genius, Olga. They are available in our area at The Emporium, Foundations, all six stores, phone YU 2-1111.

Dancing Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary

They met at a dance, he proposed at a dance, and they danced at their 50th wedding anniversary last Saturday.

The dancing couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Buchanan Adams of 55 Happy Lane, San Rafael, who were married just before Adams was called away to World War I.

"We love to dance," Mrs. Adams said. "I danced every dance and he danced every dance, and he's 81."

Both natives of England, although Adams is Scottish ancestory, they were married in England, and lived there until 17 years ago when they moved to Tiburon.

They renewed their marriage vows in a special service at the Church of the Redeemer, Glenwood, Saturday with Rev. Richard Beaumont, vicar, officiating.

After the service they were honored at a reception at the parish house, hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Adams of Fairfax.

"Ours is the sixth golden wedding in the Adams family in 35 years," Mrs. Adams said.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams moved to San Rafael about 10 years ago from Tiburon.

One Boy Blamed For Vandalism

A lone, 12-year-old Marinwood boy has been cited in the Tuesday night $1,000 damage spree at Miller Creek School.

Harvey E. Teague, sheriff's juvenile inspector, said despite appearances that several persons indulged in overturning desks, breaking of soft drink bottles and dropping expensive photography and office equipment in the school, investigation disclosed only one seventh grader was involved.

Entry, he said, was by keys somehow acquired by the boy, who was cited to appear in juvenile probation court at 10:30 a.m. next Wednesday.

SANTO DOMINGO PATROL

Against a background of barbed wire, American troops keep a sharp watch for isolated sniper fire in the downtown section of the capital of the Dominican Republic yesterday. The Organization of American States says that both sides in the bloody civil war have signed a "firm truce" today to end the fighting that has killed more than 1,000 persons and has led to massive U.S. military intervention. # Some Sense (?) Used On Scents Spewing From Diesel Buses

People stand on corners and sniff when the buses go by and drivers actually jockey for position behind the lumbering diesel-powered behemoths they used to hate.

The reason is perfumed fuel.

City Transportation Director Tom Prior says the floral scent is inexpensive but already has reaped a huge harvest of good will after a month of testing.

"Passengers, motorists and pedestrians all like it," he says. "We haven't had a single complaint—only compliments."

The stuff is called Malabate, an odorless liquid until heated by engine combustion. It costs $1.60 a pound and is poured into diesel fuel at a rate of one pound per 1,000 gallons.

The effect is that of a mild talcum powder. Prior says he doesn't know if it comes in different scents but he's going to find out.

After all, what could be more appropriate than a woodsy odor on Cedar Street or, on Olympic Boulevard, something called Odeur de Locker Room?

A.F. Cadet Honor Code Is Backed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The five-man committee that investigated the cheating scandal at the Air Force Academy recommended today that the honor code be retained. But the committee said some changes may be needed in the way the code is applied.

The committee headed by retired Gen. Thomas D. White, conducted hearings, interviews, and studies of the scandal which resulted in the resignation of 105 cadets.

The committee reported to Secretary Eugene M. Zuckert that the academy's program is fundamentally sound.

It said that "any notion that the cheating episode reflects either a major institutional collapse or requires a major overhaul of the academy's program may be dismissed as misguided."

The committee said the cadets regard the honor code as their own, and added:

"If the code were to be abandoned or changed, the wing (of cadets) would regard the loss as irreparable.

"The administration and implementation of the honor code may need modification, but the purpose would be not to weaken but to strengthen the code. We reiterate that any contemplated changes should be considered by the cadets themselves, in consultation with their advisers before they are finally adopted."

The Air Force, in a report to Congress after the cheating was disclosed, said two chief members of a cheating ring made a profit of about $900 in selling examinations to other cadets.

Four other cadets were described as "contact men" who made the actual sales of the examination questions.

37 Marin Farms Get Soil Assistance Funds

Thirty-seven Marin County farms have received $15,207 in soil conservation assistance payments from the Department of Agriculture, according to Mrs. Dorothy V. Main, Santa Rosa office manager of the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Payments ranged from the $34.76 paid to Gerritsen Brothers to the $2,268.10 which went to Russell W. Sweeney.

The annual payments, which go to farmers who act to conserve soil, water and woodland, are administered by a five-man county committee, two members of which received payments themselves.

Other recipients and their payments were:

Ernest Ghisletta, $583.12; Louis Albini, $241.60; Manuel N. Azevedo, $234; Arnold Gambonini, $164; Eugene Brown, $68.10; Leroy Dolcini, $561.60; Vivian Farley, $129.58; George Duncan, $349.33; Alice Getterdam, $270;

Henry Grossi, $302; Irvin Jensen, $194.32; Leland S. Murphy, $908; D. S. Pellascio, $304; Peter Poiani, $243.36; Andy Porter, $158.08; Fred Terza, $142.80; Humberto Viglione, $173.50;

James Wilson and J. P. Gifford, $500; Corda Brothers, $478; J. H. and J. B. Mendoza, $164.40; Alfred Grossi, $74; Waldo Giacomini and Son, $1,661.70; and Earl J. Dolcini, $425.88.

Redwood High Set To Vote

Candidates for student body president are James Garrett of Kentfield, Randy Homrig of Corte Madera, Daniel Kreps of Greenbrae and Al Otto of Ross.

Jed Bullard of Ross and Arthur Ferguson of Kentfield are the vice presidential candidates. Running for secretary are Lucia Blakeslee of Kentfield and Carolyn Brockbank, both of Kentfield.

Also up for election are two yell leading groups, the Suspenders and the PSMs, and 12 song leading girls.

Terra Linda Cracks Down By Changing Pool Passes

A new system on swimming pool passes, designed to prevent unauthorized use, will be tried this season by the Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District, chairman Jack Brandon announced today.

A photo process will be used to reproduce the card, with every card holder's picture.

"We've had a lot of trouble with kids giving cards to friends who live outside the district and with adults falsely giving an address that is within the district," Brandon said.

The program will be presented to the full commission at a meeting at 8 p.m. next Thursday. Brandon said the commission in earlier discussion approved the idea if the cost could be kept down. He said the cards can be made for 30 cents each.

There was no meeting of the commission last night, the session being postponed to next Thursday.

Hollis Against County-Wide Unification

County Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis said today he is opposed to unification of all school districts in the county into one.

He said such a step would take away local control.

County-wide unification was proposed by a group in the West Marin School District last week before the county committee on school district organization. The group filed a petition on the proposal and the committee must hold public hearings on it.

Hollis said he favors unification of all the Tamalpais district and unification of the Dixie and San Rafael districts. When these have been accomplished, some steps can be taken to solve the Tomales High School District issue, he said.

The West Marin proposal was made basically as a step to solve the Tomales unification question.

Hollis pointed out that the state has the power to force unification without vote of the people. Most powers of local districts are held only at the pleasure of the state, Hollis said.

The State Board of Education will never approve three-district or two-district unification within the Tamalpais High School district, he predicted.

"It just isn't in the cards," Hollis said. "If voters do not approve the Tamalpais unification, the state will eventually make it mandatory."

Marine Loses Legs, And Fighting Spirit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Marine Lance Cpl. Russell Rowe is in critical condition today at Walter Reed Army Medical Center. Both his legs have been amputated.

"All the fight has gone out of him," said his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Harkness of Zion, Ill.

It was different last week when he went into Santo Domingo. He wrote his mother:

"I'm in the first assault wave. There's really nothing to worry about. The rebels are very unorganized and ten to one it won't last long. I feel proud to be a Marine, protecting my country. I am only upset to a certain extent because I know that if I did get hurt, people who love me such as you would feel the pain."

In the dark hours before dawn last Friday, the 20-year-old Rowe was defending a mound of earth in the revolt-torn Caribbean island. A sniper shot him in the leg, knocking him to the ground.

Despite the wound, Rowe bounced up and fired his rifle into the darkness. The sniper fired again, hitting Rowe in the other leg. A third sniper bullet ripped into his back, stopping in his stomach.

Hours later, Rowe was near death in Ramey Air Force Base Hospital in Puerto Rico. Air Force doctors amputated his badly damaged right leg.

Rowe was flown to Andrews Air Force Base, Md., and then taken to Walter Reed in Washington. His mother and his 18-year-old fiancee were there to meet him.

"Oh, Mom, I'll get along on a wooden leg," he told his mother. "I'll hop around on one leg." He was in good spirits, his mother said.

Then, on Monday, the doctors removed his left leg.

But it wasn't until Tuesday, when they were changing the dressings on his wounds, that Rowe learned that both legs were gone.

"Since then, he has been staring at the ceiling," his mother said.

Students Get Pay For Trash Pickup

Five car loads of trash were picked up during the last two weekends in the commercial and residential areas of Tiburon by Redwood High School students.

Ninteen students received $52 from the city for the schools' international club. Students worked throughout the county for $1 an hour, with their pay to be used for student exchange expenses.

Slow Payers Face Water Shortages

Muir Beach Community Services District directors last night agreed to "crack down" on water users who are 30 days or more in arrears in paying water bills.

The board decided that if a person is 30 days behind, his water may be shut off and, after 60 days, it will be shut off automatically. In addition, a $2 service charge will be made for reconnection.

Jack F. Harris, board president, said there are about 15 users who are 30 days in arrears and some are as much as three and four months behind.

The board heard that a new well was drilled last week in the vicinity of the old well and that the water is being analyzed by a chemist. The new well produces 25 to 30 gallons per minute as against the old well's 75 gallons per minute, Harris reported. "We will probably pump from both wells during the dry season," he said.

Directors will meet at 10 a.m. Saturday at Muir Beach Tavern to receive a bid on a submersible pump proposed to pump water from the new well to the tanks. The board also voted not to exchange any tank sites with Miwok Corp., saying the present site is large enough for the district's use.

Union, Newspapers Near Agreement On New Pact

Threat of a strike by Stereotypers Union Local 29 against the Independent-Journal and 11 other Bay Area newspapers appeared ended today as the union came close to completing a new contract yesterday in a session with a California Newspaper Publishers Assn. committee.

R. Raymond Jeffress, business representative for the San Francisco union, said he had asked the Marin County Labor Council to table its request for strike sanction against the I-J.

Yesterday's meeting settled two remaining issues, according to I-J assistant publisher Wishard Brown, a member of the CNPA committee. These involved overtime for foremen and premium pay for work on items which are not part of the newspaper itself.

Brown said a meeting Friday is expected to settle precise language of the contract.

Strike sanctions had earlier been sought against papers in Richmond, Vallejo, Hayward, San Mateo and other cities as well as San Rafael. San Francisco and Oakland dailies are not involved.

The previous contract expired May 3, 1964. Talks since then had brought no settlement and had reached a stalemate in recent months.

North Bay Artists Meeting Postponed

The May meeting of the North Bay Artists has been postponed from 2 p.m. this Sunday to May 16 at the Novato Community House, because of Mother's Day.

Mrs. Ann O'Hanlon will show slides of nature subjects and new and old paintings. There will also be an exhibit of art by North Bay Artists.

Boy Still Unconscious

John H. Davis Jr., 16, of 150 Madrone Avenue, Belvedere, remained in critical condition and unconscious today in the intensive care unit at Marin General Hospital, seven days after he suffered head injuries in an auto accident on Tennessee Valley Road.

A.F. 'Turkey Shoot' May Bring Booms

The loud booms tomorrow will be the 84th fighter Intercepter Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base "shooting turkeys."

A special training exercise, called "Turkey Shoot," will bring increased air activity with possible sonic booms to Marin County, headquarters of the squadron announced.

Death Row Has New Occupant

Leo Carlton Lookadoo, 22, of Bakersfield, convicted of shooting a service station attendent and setting fire to his body, became the 52nd man on San Quentin Prison's Death Row yesterday.

Lookadoo was condemed to death Monday in Modesto for the murder of a 71-year-old service station worker last Oct. 25.

The record high number of inmates on Death Row at San Quentin is 52, set in Feb., 1964, and repeated a year later, according to James W. L. Park, associate warden.

'Sheets In Wind' Big Crowd Pleaser

By THERON A. NEWELL

"Two Sheets in the Wind," spring production of the Novato Community Club, is one of the best shows presented in recent years by the club.

Final two performances will be at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow and Saturday in the Novato Community House.

Built around the theme of television shows and commercials, the show has many pleasing song and dance numbers. One of the most outstanding is the song, "With Me 'Ead Tucked Underneath Me Arm," with Dorothy Weston as the head and singer, and Scott Wright as the body. The sneeze made the crowd gasp.

Dawn Scheiern and William Jacob did excellent jobs as Vampira and Dracula. Marilyn Casady was good in "The Gypsy," as was John Littlefield in "Chug-a-Lug."

A colorful number was "Tzena," with Vivienne Terry, singer, and Mae Gronberg, Claudia Bliss, Lee Mann, Ellen Keeler and Arlene Martin dancers. "Dance Gypsy" with Ray Jacob and Lee Mann also needs special mention.

There were many numbers with good choreography as usual, directed by Wanda Blackwell.

The show was written by Robert and Marie Comaduran, Alex Consagra, Christine Kollgaard and Donald Leaf. Paul Terry was the producer and Leaf the director.

Sausalito Denies Floor Plan Plea

Sausalito planning commission last night denied a variance to Mr. and Mrs. Miles Merians of 319 Fourth Street to permit a larger floor area on their home and to permit a smaller side-yard setback than is permitted.

About 25 persons appeared on the subject, several urging denial. The commission received eight letters from adjacent property owners also recommending denial.

The commission granted Mrs. Herbert Andron permission to divide one lot into four in the 500 block of Sausalito Boulevard.

The meeting lasted until 1:15 a.m. today.

Two Boys Saved By Grandmother

COVINA (AP) — Police say Mrs. Mildred Gruber, 77, disregarded her own safety to rescue two young boys from a house fire.

Mrs. Gruber got the boys out of a front bedroom just before the fire spread throughout the room Wednesday.

Firemen said Mrs. Gruber's grandson, Kyle, 4, and another boy evidently set fire to curtains while playing with matches.

Damage to the house was estimated at $1,800, the firemen said.

Prison Handicraft Store Hours Change

San Quentin Prison handicraft store, featuring items made by prison inmates, will be open to the public daily from 8 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. during Daylight Saving Time, associate warden James W. L. Park announced yesterday.

Profits from the store, located just outside the prison's main gate, go to the inmate welfare fund and to the individual whose item was sold.

Point Reyes Seashore Head Appointed To D.C. Position

Fred W. Binnewies, superintendent of Point Reyes National Seashore since July, 1963, has been promoted to a new post with the National Park Service in Washington, D.C.

He will start Monday as assistant operations director of the service's National Capitol Region.

No successor has been named. Acting superintendent in the interim will be Gordon K. Patterson, the park's chief of resource management and visitor services.

Binnewies took over his post 10 months after Congress authorized the seashore in September, 1962. More than 16,000 acres have since been purchased or placed under contract, at a cost of nearly $14 million.

His family will continue to live at 5 Tyler Street, Novato, until June, then will join him in Washington.

Tiburon Traffic Plan Is Eased

"No Parking" provisions on the south side of Main Street in Tiburon are being relaxed on weekday evenings to help stop commuter traffic congestion, Tiburon city officials reminded residents today.

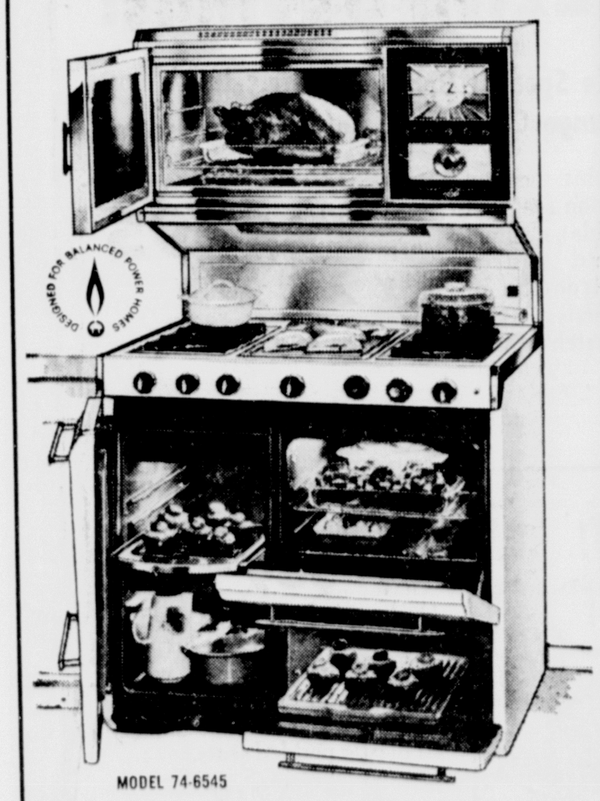

City councilmen have given approval to allowing ferry-riding commuters to be picked up between 6 and 6:20 p.m. by cars stopping on Main Street opposite the ferry landing, in the "no parking" zone.

Mountain Play Will Set Many Records This Year

"Rough an' Ready," this year's Mountain Play, will set a number of records when it goes on May 16 and 22 at 2 p.m. at Cushing Memorial Amphitheater on Mount Tamalpas.

The Gold Rush comedy by Dan Totheroh is the 48th actual production and marks the 52nd anniversary of the event. There was a lapse during the war years.

It will be Totheroh's 50th year of association with the pageant. He first played as an actor in the 1915 production and has acted or directed off and on since that year.

Carol Aronovici will play the ghost of Bret Harte, and although he has been the show's costumer for many years, this will be his first appearance as an actor with lines since 1933.

Harry Hertenstein of Sonoma will again supervise set construction, a job he took over in 1937. He began acting with the group in 1918.

Tickets will be available at the gates for both performances. Officials of the Mountain Play Assn. said there is ample free parking at the amphitheater.

Two Operas Are Slated At College

The College of Marin Opera Workshop will present two one-act operas at Olney Hall for its final production of the current school year tomorrow and Saturday, starting at 8:30 p.m.

They are "Riders to the Sea" by Ralph Vaughan Williams and Menotti's "Amelia Goes to the Ball." There will be a charge for admission.

Cast for Williams' work is Marjery Tede, Margaret Lee, Miranda Forwood, Martha Ward, Anna Secrist and Frank Blake, the last five being Marinites. Guiding the opera will be workshop director Peggy Ann Donovan.

The "Amelia" cast, all from Marin County, is made up of Geraldine Kanenson, George Baker and Kenneth Rowland. Director is Orva Hoskinson.

Larkspur Manager Casts Doubt On Joining Flood Control Area

Larkspur City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper said last night that he doubts that Larkspur "has too much to gain" by joining the proposed Corte Madera Flood Control District.

The proposed district would provide maintenance for the Corte Madera Creek flood control project to be constructed by the Army Corps of Engineers.

Piper said that because of the flood control work that has been done in Larkspur, there would be "relatively small benefit" to the city in joining the district.

The city has a flooding problem in the College Park area, but the creek project will not solve that, he said.

Councilman Vaughn Marker asked if the district would be formed if Larkspur did not join. Piper said he assumed it could be.

The council settled the long-discussed project to widen Redwood Avenue at Madrone by confining widening to the city right-of-way at a cost not to exceed $4,000. The project includes the removal of five or six trees.

Residents of the area have been urging action on the widening because of hazards at the curve, but the council could not promise an immediate start to the project.

Mayor Neil R. Brixon advised the residents the project would be placed on the work priority list along with other city projects.

The council postponed action on architectural approval of the 12-story Tamalpais retirement center on the south side of Bon Air hill, off Via Holon.

The planning commission recommended approval, but the council noted that the parking spaces had been reduced and parking arrangements changed since original approval of a use permit. Councilmen decided to review the plans at a special session at 3 p.m. May 19, then take action at their June 2 meeting.

The Larkspur City Council Also:

1. Scheduled a special meeting to review the proposed fiscal 1966 budget at 7:30 p.m. May 19 at city hall.
2. Passed an ordinance amendment limiting homeowners to two dogs and two cats and restricting the keeping of horses to lots of at least an acre.
3. Passed a revised tree ordinance that controls planting and cutting of trees and permits city removal of hazardous trees on private land.
4. Requested City Engineer B. J. Whitlow and Piper to study possible ordinance revisions regarding fill requirements for the tidelands areas east of Highway 101.
5. Endorsed the June 5 planning conference sponsored by the Citizens Advisory Committee on Development of Marin.
6. Agreed to invetsigate a complaint from W. R. Rainford, 45 Millard Road, that unsanitary conditions and fire hazards exist at 52 Millard Road, which he described as "a complete slum."
7. Agreed to review a proposed 10-year street program at the June 2 meeting.
8. Adjourned until 3 p.m., May 19.

Senators Vote Birth Control Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Birth control information would be provided to adults requesting it by state public health and social welfare workers under a measure approved in the Senate yesterday.

The proposal, authored by Sen. Alvin C. Weingand, D-Santa Barbara, was sent to the Assembly on a 28 to 7 vote. It would allow family planning services to be included in public health service programs. Funds for the program were to be provided locally.

Shasta (county, mountain, town) is an Indian name, but the origin has not been definitely determined.

Cycle Crash Fatal For Peninsula Boy

BURLINGAME (AP)—A crash into a car killed motorcyclist, Roger Kelleher, 16, of San Bruno.

He died at Peninsula Hospital of injuries suffered in the Tuesday accident in San Bruno. His passenger, Dennis Krieg, 14, San Bruno, remains in serious condition.

Four Drivers Fined On Drinking Charges

Bernard James McElroy, 65, of 314 Glen Park Avenue, San Rafael, was fined $276 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested by San Rafael police on May 4.

Others fined for drunken driving were Louis Joseph Zuffinetti, 43, of 1284 Yukon Way, Novato, fined $220, arrested on Diablo Avenue by Novato police April 15; Donald Ray Sanders, 21, of 9 Wilkins Place, Mill Valley, $166, arrested by California Highway Patrol on Highway 101 April 25, and William Joseph Burnett, 40, of Pittsburg, Contra Costa County, $166, arrested on May 1 on Highway 101 by the patrol.

Brixon Re-Elected Mayor After Smith Is Defeated

Neil R. Brixon was re-elected mayor of Larkspur last night by a voice vote after the Larkspur City Council defeated a move for a secret ballot.

Councilmen retained Brixon as mayor after voting 3-2 against the first nominee for the post, Councilman Robert J. Smith.

The election came shortly before midnight at the end of a long agenda. Councilman Earl J. O'Grady started the proceedings by asking for a ballot vote.

O'Grady said the ballot vote would provide "greater opportunity for an unrestricted choice," and would avoid embarrassment.

Several members of the dwindling audience said they wanted to know how councilmen vote and urged a voice vote.

Mayor Brixon said he favored O'Grady's proposal, but other councilmen could see no valid reason for changing the voice voting procedure.

Smith opposed the secret ballot and said that all council action should be open to the public.

Councilman Vaughn M. Marker nominated Smith for mayor, but only he and Smith voted in favor.

Then Brixon was nominated and elected by a 4-0 vote, with Brixon abstaining.

Unruh Rebuffed On Sales Curbs

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh seldom loses a bill in committee but it happened yesterday.

His proposal to ban referral sales practices — the rewarding of a purchaser if he procures additional sales — was voted down by the Assembly Finance and Insurance Committee.

Two years ago, a similar bill by Unruh, D-Los Angeles, was passed by the Assembly but wasn't taken up by the Senate before the end of the session.

Three Indicted In Art Theft

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Federal Grand Jury yesterday indicted two ex-convicts and the brother of one on charges of interstate transportation of $750,000 worth of paintings stolen from the W. W. Crocker mansion on March 20.

The paintings, including old masters and a Van Gogh, were recovered in a warehouse in Houston, Tex., April 24.

Indicted were Martin J. Winthal, 25, Joseph A. Winthal, 21, his brother, and Solomon Marquez Jr., 27, all of San Francisco.

U.S. District Judge Alfonso J. Zirpoli set bail for Winthal and Marquez at $20,000 each. Joseph Winthal's bail was set at $5,000 because he had no previous criminal record.

Kindergarten Signup

Registration for kindergarten for the Larkspur School District will be held next Wednesday from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at all four schools of the district. A birth certificate or baptism certificate is required as proof of age.

ROADWORK IN SAN RAFAEL

These aerial photographs of the San Rafael canal area show at least five areas where new roads and bridges are being constructed and old roads are being realigned. The picture at the lower left is a close-up of the entire construction area. At the top left hand corner of the upper left picture is Third Street, which will be made one-way, east-bound, from Mary Street to the Miracle Mile. Grand Avenue, which intersects Third in front of the Thrifty store, will be extended by a bridge (note the pilings) over the canal to Francisco Boulevard. Irwin Street, just beyond the freeway, will be made one-way, running north from the freeway off-ramp. At the middle right hand side of the picture are two clusters of pilings. Those on the left will allow Second Street to bridge the canal and extend through to Third and Mary Streets. Second will run one-way, west-bound, from the Miracle Mile. The other pilings will support a bridge for a new road, between the freeway and the railroad tracks, which will enter onto the freeway.

Wilson Faces Crucial Test In Nationalized Steel Vote

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson today faced the most crucial test of his six months in office, a House of Commons vote on the government's plan to nationalize firms producing 90 per cent of Britain's steel output.

Wilson faced the combined opposition of the Conservatives and Liberals, plus a revolt in his own Labor party. Laborites now hold a four-vote majority in Commons but even that was expected to be cut to three in a by-election today in Birmingham.

The Commons vote and the election returns were not expected before tonight.

Four Laborite M.P.'s have threatened to abstain or vote against the government in the critical balloting on nationalization.

Audubon Club Sets Election, Barbecue

Willis Evans, and employee of the California Department of Fish and Game, will speak on "Water" at the annual Marin Audubon Society meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in room 40, Chemistry building, College of Marin. Officers will be elected.

The society's annual chicken barbecue benefit will be held Sunday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Audubon Canyon Ranch near Bolinas. The barbecue is open to the public as well as members. There will be an informal program of wild flower and bird walks plus heron watching.

Prison Nurse Is Retiring

Thomas Johnston, first registered nurse ever employed by the California prison system, is retiring from San Quentin this month after 20 years service.

Johnston, 65, of San Francisco, estimates he has treated 30,000 inmates since his career began at Folsom Prison in 1944.

The registered nurse, who worked under five different wardens in California prisons, plans to begin his retirement with a trip to Ireland, place of his birth.

High, Low In U.S.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The highest temperature reported to the U.S. Weather Bureau yesterday, excluding Alaska and Hawaii, was 98 at Presidio, Tex. The lowest reported this morning was 12 at Elko and Ely, Nev.

Student Due Award

'Myrt' Won't Be Asking 'Number Please' Anymore

Phone Operator Ending 45-Year Stint On Board

By BRUCE COLEMAN

When someone called, she replied: "Number, please."

"Is that you, Myrt?" the caller asked.

"Yes," she would respond and perhaps ask about the caller's family before he asked: "Give me Joe Brown."

Mrs. Mildred Wright of 403 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, has retired from the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., effective June 1 at the end of her present vacation. She "pushed the plug" for 45 years.

"That's one thing about the old days," she said. "It was a little bit more friendly. They used to like to talk to us. We had a friendly voice. It was somebody there at the other end."

Mrs. Wright, who has been operator, working information, supervisor and assistant chief operator, started in 1920 in San Anselmo on what she calls the manual board.

Telephones then were uprights without dials. Some people used the crank phone in places such as Tamalpais Valley, Muir Woods, West Point and on the mountain, said Mrs. Wright.

"I worked for five years in San Anselmo under chief operator Mrs. Ethel Bonnickson. Then I worked one year in San Rafael before being transferred to Mill Valley in 1926.

"We had our office in the Bank of America building and there were only three positions. When we went to dial in 1949 we moved ot the big office on East Blithedale. My home number was 344. We had between 400 and 500 customers."

The jolly, gray-haired Mrs. Wright, 65 last month, also worked as relief operator in many Marin cities.

"I worked in the old Belvedere office when they had old-time drop signals over there. I worked in Larkspur when the office was in the private home of Mrs. Osborne on Magnolia Avenue," she related.

'IS THAT YOU, MYRT?'—A voice on the telephone reminds Mrs. Mildred Wright of Mill Valley of the "old days" when customers chatted with the operator while she put through the connection. Mrs. Wright served the telephone company from hand-crank phone days to automation. She's now plugged her last plug. (Independent-Journal photo)

"I worked in Corte Madera in the Mayhood Brothers grocery store. Besides the telephone office and groceries, there was a post office in the building. We might get a call asking for Mrs. Jones, saying: 'Will you look out the street and see if Mrs. Jones is coming?' If she were, we would hold on until she arrived.

"If someone would call for a policeman and the officer was out, I would take the number for the officer to call on his return. We had one policeman by day and one by night in Mill Valley then."

The most trying time in Mrs. Wright's career was during the big Mill Valley fire of 1929. "We were all working the switchboard," she said. "We worked around the clock. The fire came down as far as lower Alcatraz and Corte Madera. We were afraid we might have to evacuate the office."

Mrs. Wright has two telephones in her home. Well-wishers have sent her telegrams from police and fire departments and letters from the mayor and merchants. Last Saturday she was honored at a party in Ignacio given by the Communications Workers of America.

Mrs. Wright plans to garden, take care of her home, hook some rugs and "take it easy."

For the last two years she worked the 6 p.m. to midnight shift so that she could spend more time with her husband, Roy, who retired from construction work five years ago for E. A. Forde and Co. They have no children.

"I've handled thousands of plugs," Mrs. Wright declared, "but when I came home from work I wouldn't want to be on the telephone.

"I've enjoyed it all my life. I have always loved it. It gets in your blood. The company always treated you good if you were plugging for them."

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

12:36 p.m., San Anselmo—False alarm from fire box at San Anselmo and Oak Knoll Avenues.

1:55 p.m., Tiburon — False alarm in 100 block of Hacienda Drive.

6:38 p.m., San Rafael—Resuscitator call to 249 Riviera Drive. Victim of difficulty breathing Randalf Mills Dorton taken to Marin General Hospital by United Ambulance.

8:47 p.m., Point Reyes Station—Investigation of fire place in residence of G. Ball. Found no hazard.

TODAY:

1:10 a.m., Corte Madera—Fire following auto wreck totally destroyed car driven by Rego Amnuel of San Francisco, on Tamalpais Drive overpass over Highway 101; about $600 loss.

4 a.m., Ross—Fire in cottage in Marin Art and Garden Center, 16 Laurel Grove Avenue, rented by Frank McCrudy. The family of four was sleeping when fire started. No injuries. Ross Fire Department reported not much fire damage but a lot of smoke damage.

School Staff Raises Sought In Sausalito

Principals, teachers and classified employees all asked Sausalito School District trustees last night for raises in fiscal 1966. The board took the requests under advisement and continued budget discussion to 8 p.m. next Wednesday.

Teacher George Gregg proposed that the teacher salary schedule, now $5,000-$9,960, be raised to $5,600-$11,155. Ralph Magnuson, Bayside and Central school principal, recommended that principals' salaries be increased to make them comparable with principals in similar Marin school districts, and Guy Schoonover made the same request for classified employees.

The board agreed to investigate shipping obsolete textbooks for Malaysia to the English Speaking Union, on request of San Mateo attorney Forden Athearn, director of the organization.

Trustees agreed to send a five-man team to the Stanford interracial team project program, Aug. 2-20, at Stanford University. They also, at their meeting which lasted until midnight, they accepted resignations of teacher Leo Lauenhauer, seventh grade, Richardson Bay School, effective June 30, and of custodian Walter Morrison, Manzanita School, who has been drafted into military service. The board granted leave of absence to Mrs. Joan Gardner, music teacher.

School Group Favors Elementary Mergers

Plans for consolidating Marin elementary school districts into four or five larger elementary districts—later to form the basis for unified districts—were outlined last night at a meeting of Citizens for Sensible Unification.

This would mean abolishment of the 11 elemntary school districts within the Tamalpais Unoin High School District and abolishment of the seven elementary districts (including four in Sonoma county) within the Tomales High School District," committee chairman Leo Souza of Tiburon explained.

In their place would be formed four or five consolidated elementary school districts.

Souza said the approximately 40 persons at the meeting last night at Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur discussed but came to no decision on various plans for combining districts.

These larger elementary school districts then would be the basis for future unification into four or five districts, each with its one governing board for kindergarten through high school, Souza explained.

His committee will ask school boards in each district to designate members to work with the committee, Souza said.

"Formation of fewer elementary districts would mean communication and articulation with high school districts could be improved, making possible better planning and school construction programs," Souza said.

Two Terra Linda Boys Leave Home

Sheriff's officers yesterday issued local and Los Angeles area bulletins to locate two Terra Linda High School sophomores who left home after leaving notes that they planned to "go south."

Missing since yesterday afternoon are James Edward Taylor, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eugene Taylor, 19 Merrydale Road, San Rafael Meadows, and Daniel William Caveney, also 16, of 16 Drake's Cove, San Rafael.

Officers said the notes were left for parents of both boys.

Hawthorne Terrace Area Due Sanitation Refunds

Residents of the Hawthorne Terrace area of the Tiburon Peninsula will have $19,000 refunded to them by the Richardson Bay Sanitary District.

The refund was approved last night when district directors noted construction of sewage facilities under a special assessment district had cost less than expected.

Richardson Bay Sanitary District directors also:

1. Approved a low bid of $2,100 from Cagwin and Dorward, San Rafael, for landscaping the Hawthorne Terrace, Cove and Salt Works Canal pumping stations.

2. Turned down two bids, the lowest being $7,777, for relocating sewage lines under the newly aligned Tiburon Boulevard. Instead the district will use an alternate plan estimated to cost $5,000, acting as its own contractor, director Kurtis Webb reported.

3. Agreed to draw a contract with the Mill Valley Refuse Service, for service within the district where it is not covered by other garbage collection franchises.

Window Lock Picked $150 Guitar Stolen

Theft of a $150 Spanish-type guitar in burglary of the home of Janet Penny Cappelli, 904 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, was reported today by sheriff's officers.

Deputies said entry was by picking the lock of a living room window.

Emergency Calls Branded Hoaxes

Sheriff's officers said today that telephone calls sending an ambulance and Tiburon Fire Department to a non-existant Tiburon address yesterday were apparently the work of mischievous juveniles.

United Ambulance Co. responded at 1:38 p.m. at request of a "female voice" to a telephone operator. The caller termed it an emergency at 138 Hacienda Avenue.

Ambulance drivers found no such address on the street. Minutes later the fire department responded to a call for the same address.

Octagenarian Found Safe After Outing

Mrs. Pauline Stevens, in her 80s and a resident at Mill Valley Rest Home, got on the wrong bus yesterday morning and caused friends much concern.

Sausalito and Mill Valley police departments checked hotels, motels and bus depots when they learned Mrs. Stevens, headed for Sausalito at 7 a.m. to visit her friend, Mrs. Charles E. Green at 11 Bonita Street, Sausalito, had not arrived by 11:42 a.m.

At 11:10 p.m. a Sausalito friend, with Mill Valley police, searched the creek behind the rest home at 297 Miller Avenue, knowing Mrs. Stevens normally takes daily walks.

California Highway Patrolmen notified Mill Valley police at 3:15 a.m. today they found Mrs. Stevens walking on the Lombard Avenue approach to Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco, apparently heading for Mill Valley. They returned her home.

San Jose was named for St. Joseph.

San Rafael's Two High Schools Get Good Accreditation Ratings

San Rafael's two high schools are doing a good job, according to the Western Assn. of Schools and Colleges, which has just given both schools five-year accreditation.

San Rafael High School, said a five-man committee which visited it in March, has continued to provide top education in spite of the city's growth.

This finding, plus recommendations on " a few minor problems," are reflected in a detailed booklet sent to the school. A similar booklet is expected to arrive soon at Terra Linda High School.

"Despite the rapid growth," says the booklet, "teaching . . . has continued to be of exceptionally high quality."

The school board and staff are praised for recognizing the limitations of the school's physical plant and living with these limitations while they are working to correct them.

On the other hand, the committee has listed several recommendations under each category of the report.

For the physical plant, there are 10 recommendations, ranging from the need for more attention to safety in the metal shop to notation that "the entire main building of the school is in immediate need of renovation."

Teachers are commended for "being concerned about offering excellent educational opportunities to all students." The district is urged, however, to consider rotating teachers between the two schools to promote an "interchange of teaching ideas."

Strongest praise comes under "progress of studies and curriculum development," when the report refers to "the stimulating encouragement offered to students to think for themselves and to take a personal interest in the human events of our times.

"Few schools can match San Rafael High School in this respect," says the report.

Recommendations under the same category include setting up "academic activities aimed at the student of average ability" and substitution, when possible, of "materials as opposed to words" for explaining difficult, abstract ideas.

Another recommendation says the "appointment of department heads should be given frequent review, perhaps being made on a rotating basis with a period of three years."

In its summary, the report places heavy stress on the financial aspects of school problems.

Noting that difficulties caused by population growth "are compounded by the revolution going on in the American high school system," the committee suggests that "part of the adjustment must be financial."

"In the long run," it says at one point, "citizens of San Rafael are going to continue to expect first-class public secondary education."

Drive Seeks To Aid In Earthquake

A citizen of El Salvador, Mrs. Eugene Spatta of 288 Beach Road, Belvedere, is co-chairman of a drive in Marin to collect clothing and food for earthquake victims in her country.

She and Mrs. Fernando J. Herrera Jr. of Terra Linda are leading a drive to collect clothing, shoes, canned goods and particularly canned milk, which will be flown to El Salvador under auspices of a San Francisco newspaper which is printed for Latin Americans.

Donations in southern Marin may be made on weekdays to the Belvedere Nursery School on Cove Road, Belvedere; Tiburon Nursery School, 240 Tiburon Boulevard near the Strawberry area; Mill Valley Nursery School, Camino Alto and Sycamore streets, Mill Valley.

Non-wool clothing would be appreciated, Mrs. Spatta said, "because it's a pretty hot country."

Three Join Navy

Three Marin youths have enlisted in the San Rafael Naval Reserve unit. They are Richard Arrow, 17, of 445 Hickory Lane, Terra Linda; Michael Augusto, 18, of 18 Francis Street, San Rafael, and Lloyd Knapp, 17, of 595 Norman Drive, Novato.

Science Program Set At Redwood

Redwood High School's first "Science Symposium" will open at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the school's little theater.

Eight students will each present 12-minute talks and perhaps demonstrate their chosen subject, which will be followed by a three-minute questioning period. Sponsor of the program is Science teacher Ira D. Guthrie, with senior Pete Esherik as student manager.

Steve Allen, host of "I've Got a Secret," attended 18 different schools in his youth. His parents were traveling vaudeville comedians.

Mill Valley Youth Sets Beauty Fete

The queen is to be announced at the youth organization's second annual chicken barbecue and queen contest from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on May 16 at Mill Valley's Boyle Park.

Funds from the benefit will go toward completion of the youth center being built at Project 17 near Enchanted Knolls.

Besides a parade of the contestants, there will be games and refreshment booths and sale of barbecued chicken. Tickets for the event may be purchased from any contestant, according to Les Mize, council co-director.

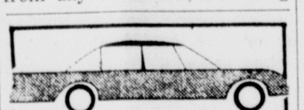

Contestants are: Saralyn Almada, Louise Beckham, Janie Cleaveland, Cathy Devin, Sharlee Gay, Lynn Kopan, Barbara Lennon, Heidi Schindler, Cathy Sinclair, Mary Stone, Jonathan Vail and Kathi Young.

Larry Hovis was a singer, night-club comic and writer in Houston, Texas, before he was chosen for the role of Larry in "Gomer Pyle—USMC."

Water Aide Will Go Before Congress

Jerome B. Gilbert, manager of the North Marin County Water District, will represent the Eel River Assn. before the House and Senate appropriations subcommittee, May 17-79.

Gilbert will also speak for Marin County in behalf of the Corte Madera and Novato Creek flood control projects at request of County Supervisor William A. Gnoss, he said.

Trading Boosts Volume To Six Million Shares

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was mixed at the close today with selective strength in some issues.

Trading was heavy, boosting volume to around six million shares.

DuPont held a gain exceeding 3. Kennecott and United Air Lines rose more than a point each.

Down about a point were Eastman Kodak and Polaroid.

Volume for the day was estimated at around the same as yesterday's 6.36 million shares.

Strength in selected blue chips helped prop up the averages but many market wheelhorses fell by the wayside or showed no change. Most of the trading activity appeared in strong group of secondary issues.

DuPont was up more than 3. Kennecott, Phelps Dodge and Westinghouse Electric were up about a point each. Fractional gains were posted for General Motors, Sears, Roebuck, Woolworth and Bethlehem.

Little change, if any, was shown by such issues as Jersey Standard, Twxaco, Chrysler, Ford, U.S. Steel, American Telephone and Pennsylvania Railroad.

Down fractionally were Reynolds Tobacco, Royal dutch, Union Carbide, General Electric, New York Central and American Can.

Radio Corp., up a fraction, looked like the most active stock for the third straight day. It traded on a late block of 20,000 shares.

Litton Industries, which made a strong breakout of its price chart Wednesday, ran up more than 3 points before trading was halted temporarily.

Pan American Sulphur rebounded with a gain of about 3. Up a point or better were Revlon, Singer, Sunshine Mining, Texas Gulf Sulphur, American Metal Climax, Copperweld Steel, Delaware & Hudson, Delta Airlines, Gillette and Norfolk & Western.

Income Increases

LOS ANGELES — Pacific Finance Corp., major finance subsidiary of Transamerica Corp., net income for the first quarter of 1965 was $1,940,594 compared with net income of $1,648,183 in the first quarter of 1964.

Californians' Spending Up, Bank Reports

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Total spending for goods and services in California will climb to a $77.5 billion annual rate in May after inching up to $76.8 billion in April, the Bank of California reported today.

The April spending rate was up 2.53 per cent over last year with gains of 4.91 per cent in personal spending and 1.6 per cent in government spending more than offsetting a 5.5 per cent drop in business spending.

The bank's economists said personal income in California amounted to 58.9 billion in April. Of this amount $7.7 billion was paid out in taxes, $4.2 billion was put aside in savings, and $47 billion was spent.

The bank's forecast of continued spending growth in May was based on expectation that government spending will hold close to $19 billion annual rate. Personal spending and payrolls will increase and business will spend more for durables and construction.

Formica Firm Is Planning New Plant

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Formica Corp. today announced plans to build a multimillion dollar laminated plastics plant in Placer County. Initial production is expected early in 1966.

Construction of the plant, which will have a payroll of over 500 people, will begin within 60 days. The company, a wholly owned subsidiary of American Cyanamid Co., said the new unit will manufacture decorative laminated plastics for counter surfacing, cabinets, furniture, panelling, partitions, and doors.

Plant facilities will include 300,000 square feet of production space, plus laboratories, a warehouse and offices.

Formica said engineering for the project is well under way and construction contractors will be named shortly.

Sales Of Sears

CHICAGO — Sears, Roebuck and Co.'s sales in April were 15.5 per cent higher than last year. Gross sales for the month were $542,759,791, an increase of $72,759,296 over sales of $470,000,495 in April, 1964.

Recreation Budget Up For Strawberry Area

A preliminary budget of $41,168 was approved last night by directors of the Strawberry Recreation District, who set hearing for 8:30 p.m. June 23 at Strawberry Point School.

The budget for this fiscal year was $38,158 with a 65-cent tax rate, the maximum rate which can be charged by law.

The tax rate for next year will depend on reassessments in the area and on final budget figures, said Mrs. Patricia Gowen, board secretary.

Included in the budget is $3,500 in salaries for park maintenance, with the district hoping to hire a permanent part-time maintenance man. Other salaries bring the total up to $4,700; maintenance and operation of district facilities are budgeted at $4,510; capital outlay, including loan repayment, new equipment and landscaping, is set at $29,458; addition to reserves, $2,500.

Directors last night approved dropping suits and counter suits over tidelands property in the district. The directors authorized related legal moves which will mean that Harbor Cove developers will have navigational rights over the present canal along the Strawberry shoreline opposite the Tiburon peninsula and that the company will allow residents navigational rights to a linking channel to be dredged beginning next week.

Directors appointed William L. Clark, president of the Mill Valley School District board, Dr. Robert Cogswell of Strawberry and architect J. Martin Rosse to develop plans for the seven acres of land known as the "brickyard," next to Saucelito Canal.

Directors agreed to change their meeting time from 8 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. for the June and July meetings.

Weed Control Set As Farm Bureau Topic

Weed control will be the main topic at a meeting of the Novato-Tomales Center, Marin County Farm Bureau, at 8 p.m. Monday in the Tomales High School cafeteria.

Robert Parks will show slides and speak on his recent trip to the National 4-H Club convention in Chicago.

County Wins Court Ruling In Lawsuit

A $150,000 suit against the County of Marin over a fight in a San Rafael restaurant Dec. 8, 1964, has been dismissed by Marin County Superior Court on a technicality.

The suit, filed by Charles M. Farmer of Stockton, alleged that Sheriff's Deputy George Johnson beat Farmer in a tussle in the King Cotton restaurant.

Farmer, through attorney Robert E. Cartwright of San Francisco, asked $50,000 general damages and $100,000 punitive damages. Farmer said he suffered bruises, cuts and severe injury to his left eye.

The suit was mismissed Tuesday because the deadline was not met in amending the complaint after the court sustained a demurrer, according to County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

Visits To Greece

NEW YORK (UPI) — A total of 757,495 foreigners visited Greece in 1964, including 140,935 U.S. citizens, according to the National Tourist Organization of Greece.

Daylight Thief Hits Three Apartments In Sausalito

Burglars struck thrice by daylight yesterday in an apartment house at 60-66 Edwards Avenue, Sausalito, stealing $89 in cash from dresser drawers and $295 in belongings including two men's watches and a transistor radio.

Victims telephoned police between 5 and 8:15 p.m., reporting their losses.

James S. Simonds of 64 Edwards Avenue reported that between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. someone entered via an unlocked window and took from his bedroom two men's watches valued at $175, a $2 roll of nickels and two silver dollars.

Shot Youth Listed In Fair Condition

Timothy Vincent Ferranti, 19, of Redwood City, who was shot by a San Rafael policeman as he ran from a wrecked stolen car Tuesday night, remained in fair condition in Marin General Hospital's intensive care unit today.

The youth was wounded in the lower left chest by a bullet fired by Sgt. James W. Carlton after a high-speed auto chase on Highway 101 from San Rafael to the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Ronald Foster reported that between 9:45 a.m. and 5 p.m. someone entered his unlocked front door at 66 Edwards and removed a roll of currency plus some half dollars from a dresser drawer in his bedroom, total value $85, plus a .25 caliber automatic silver pistol valued at $40.

Prying open a kitchen window with a pry instrument at the apartment of Dr. Edward Pflueger, 60 Edwards Avenue sometime before 6 p.m., someone stole Pflueger's $80 transistor portable radio from a bedside table. A dresser drawer was ransacked, said police, but the looter left behind a large jar of pennies and a considerable amount of narcotics.

Police said the bedrooms were the only rooms which were disturbed.

Planting Asked On Coyote Creek

Sixty-five residents of Tamalpais Valley have signed a petition to the Marin County Board of Supervisors asking for landscaping along the Coyote Creek project.

The petition asks that trees and shrubs be planted to replace those that were removed for the drainage ditch.

Hundreds of tourists use Shoreline Highway to go to Muir Woods and other parks and the appearance of the highway reflects the entire county, the petition says.

The name of the Sicilian dance, tarantella, is popularly ascribed to the tarantula, the big hairy spider whose bite was thought to induce melancholy and a dancing frenzy. Some authorities, however, say the dance originated in Taranto, on the Italian mainland.

'Come As You Were' Recalls Earthquake

HOMER, Alaska (UPI) —The Homer Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary observed the first anniversary of the March 27, 1964, great Alaskan earthquake by sponsoring a "come as you were" dance.

All comers were supposed to dress exactly as they were at the moment the quake hit.

No Triplicate, Golf Has Just 'Big Two'

Some years back, in a National Open in Rochester, the golfer, Mike Souchak, after playing a round with Ben Hogan, was moved to reflection. "I think," he said carefully, "you have to say Ben Hogan knows something about hitting a golf ball the rest of us don't know."

Only the other afternoon, Sam Snead, who began chasing top golf players in National Opens in the era of Guldahl and Nelson and continued through the eras of Hogan and Mangrum, thought he detected something of the same kind — not in Ben Hogan, but in Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer.

"You've got to put Nicklaus and Palmer up on one level," he observed, "and the rest of golf on another. Jack and Arnold have their tournament (Sam pronounces it 'too-namint') and the other bays are playing another one. Maybe they should split the field."

IT'S NOT SO much in tournaments won that the Palmer-Nicklaus parlay look like the surest thing since Man O' War and Earl Sande. It's the lurking suspicion that any time one or the other of them WANTS to win a tournament, one or the other of them will.

Journalists like their golfing heroes in triplicate. The "Big Three" is a favored sports-page ordinal. But the Big Third has had more cast changes than a show with a lousy book opening out of town. Gary Player, Tony Lema and Ken Venturi all had brief turns in the role. But it wasn't long before they were back playing butlers.

They put up around $3 million on the tour now, but everybody on it knows where the first 10% is going to go. Nicklaus and Palmer take theirs off the top. Like the plutocrat who can't be bothered dirtying his spats to reach down for dropped small change, they leave the Sunset Camellia open to flower-fanciers and the Cajun Classic to Cajuns.

THEY FINISHED within $81 of each other in the money-winning list last year. Each won officially over $113,000. That wasn't a patch on what they really made. Arnold Palmer is fronting for more businesses than the New York Stock Exchange. And then, too, one or both of them usually makes the World Series of Golf, which is a kind of television benefit for those who don't need it.

Worst of all is what they've done to the game of golf. You don't see any of those nice buttery Boros swings any more. Everyone tees it up by tying himself into a high-handicap knot, making sure they lock themselves against an iron left side. They hit the ball as if it was a pirate's head coming over the side of the ship.

PALMER GOES AFTER a golf course like a tough, experienced, merciless (and mercenary) army. He's a demolition specialist. Stick him in a lie where the average old-time golfer couldn't get out with a shovel —or a 1-iron—and Arnold will make it with a 5-iron. Rocks will fly, sparks will shoot off the club, and a few dead squirrels may sail through the air. But so will the ball. It may even bounce off a blacktop road or two. Meanwhile, back at the shot, Arnold will be holding his club over the top of his head like a guy trying to screw a Roman candle into his hat, and his body will be twitching from side to side like a guy whose underwear has started to ride up on him. The devotees of Bobby Jones may be inclined to close their eyes and sob, but Arnold will be too busy kissing a check on the 18th green to notice.

THE POINT IS, Arnold is just not going to let any old golf course get in his way—any more than the German army was going to stop at Belgium. Nicklaus, on the other hand, goes over a course like a bombing raid. He doesnt blast through things, he flies over them. His shots come down with snow on them. And money in them.

You can hear Palmer coming. The Nicklaus attack needs radar. But, if this thing keeps up, you will be able to recognize either one of them by the armored truck nearby. These guys play bullion golf. They take the tournaments where 1st prize is a nice hard clink of coins, not bouquets. They dont want pressed flowers for their memory book but wrinkled hundreds. You hang enough dough up there in your tournament and pretty soon a guy who looks like a rumpled bear will show up looking for it—followed closely by a guy with a look on his face that looks out of place without a helmet and machine gun. You might as well give them the money. The other guy won't be along for eleven shots or so.

Two Marin Schools On Probation

San Rafael Terra Linda high schools have been put on probation in the Marin Athletic League for one year, the first time in the league's history such a stiff penality has been dealt out.

The league's board of managers, comprised of principals of the seven high schools, voted unanimously last night to place the two schools on athletic probation for breaking a league rule involving number of events held in one week.

Swimming teams of the two schools participated in three meets during the week of April 5, when rules call for not more than two events for any one sport in a one-week period.

The schools had been put on temporary probation on April 28 by league president Al Thomson, principal of San Rafael High School. The other principals support his action last night and made the probation official during the more than three-hour meeting.

The probationary period started as of April 28, the date of a letter written by Thomson and sent to the principals of Marin Athletic League teams. The period will last through April 27, 1966.

The probation—a stern warning will mean the two schools have to toe the line and follow rules of the league to the letter. If either school breaks another league rule in any sport, that team would forfeit its chances of winning any championship. The team would continue playing out the league schedule, but each event would automatically go down in the record book as a loss.

San Rafael's swim team competed against Terra Linda on Tuesday, April 6. The following Friday San Rafael went against Redwood and Terra Linda opposed Drake. On the next day, Saturday, April 10, both San Rafael and Terra Linda competed in the Santa Rosa Relays. That's when the rule was broken.

San Rafael's swim team, coached by Larry Lack, won the varsity championship with an undefeated league record of 10 wins and 0 losses. It was San Rafael's third straight title. Terra Linda came in second place.

In Class B final standings, San Rafael and Terra Linda tied for the championship with 9-1 records. Terra Linda is coached by Rick Bayba. The meets were all listed on the schedule of the two schools, but school officials apparently were not aware of the mistake.

HAPPY 34TH BIRTHDAY MR. MAYS

Willie Mays, San Francisco Giants slugging centerfielder, swings a tough bat as he knocks in the first run of last night's game in St. Louis. He later hit a home run to tie the game and cause it to go into an extra inning. Mays is celebrating his 34th birthday today as the Giants get a day off prior to opening a three-game series with the Dodgers tomorrow at Candlestick Park.

WARRIORS PICK HETZEL, BARRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley, Princeton's All-America basketball star, was selected by the New York Knickerbockers as their No. 1 pick in the draft of the professional National Basketball Association today.

Bradley was picked as a territorial selection by the Knicks although he has said repeatedly he did not intend to play pro ball and will enter Oxford as a Rhodes Scholar for two years, starting in October. After that he plans to study law.

Also picked as priority territorial choices were Bill Buntin of Michigan by the Detroit Pistons, and Gail Goodrich of the UCLA national champions by the Los Angeles Lakers. None of the six other NBA teams made a territorial draft.

Then came the regular first round of the draft with the San Francisco Warriors getting the first two selections under a new NBA draft system. The Warriors chose Fred Hetzel of Davidson and Rick Barry of Miami (Fla.), the national scoring champion.

Dave Stallworth of Wichita was picked by New York as its second first-round choice. Then came Jerry Sloan of Evansville by Baltimore, Bill Cunningham of North Carolina by Philadelphia, Jim Washington of Villanova by St. Louis, Nate Bowman of Wichita by Cincinnati, and Ollie Johnson of the University of San Francisco by Boston.

Detroit and Los Angeles did not get a first round draft because they had taken a territorial selection. New York which was to have had two in the first round, got only one in addition to its selection of Bradley.

San Francisco and New York the last place teams in the two divisions of the NBA in the 1964-65 season, split the first four choices. The Warriors won the coin toss and were given the first and third picks with New York getting the second and fourth. As the Warriors did not utilize their territorial priority, the Knicks actually got the first pick and selected Bradley. As a result San Francisco got the first two in the regular round.

Bradley, a 6-foot-5 whiz from Crystal City, Mo. was one of the most highly publicized players in the game. He was the youngest member of the 1964 United States Olympic team which won at Tokyo and was named the most valuable player in the 1965 NCAA championship. Bradley led the Princeton team to the semifinals of the NCAA championship.

Although the Knicks knew that Bradley intended to go to Oxford, they drafted him on the chance that he might consider playing pro ball in later years. Bradley was second among major college scores with 885 points in 29 games.

Hetzel was regarded as one of the nation's top centers at 6-8 and 225 pounds. He scored 689 points and averaged 26.5 for 26 games.

Slugging Giants Wait For Dodger Invasion

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Giants took the day off today in preparation for tomorrow's opening game of a weekend series with the Los Angeles Dodgers, currently enthroned in first place in the National League.

The Giants finished up a three-game series in St. Louis last night by defeating the Cards 10-5 on a five-run uprising in the 10th inning.

Jim Davenport got the Giants started in the 10th with his third double. He went on to third on a grounder and held as Tom Haller walked. Ed Bailey then grounded to Phil Gagliano, who fumbled the ball and then threw home wildly.

Hall went to third and Bailey advanced to second on the two errors. Matty Alou drew an intentional walk, and Willie McCovey followed with a triple. Willie Mays drove in a run with a double.

It was Mays who tied it up 5-5 in the eighth with a leadoff homer off Barney Schultz. It was Mays' eighth of the season.

Bill White slammed a pair of homers for the Cardinals. The first came in the second inning. He repeated with a three-run blow in the third that put St. Louis ahead 4-3. Bob Uecker increased the lead to 5-3 with a homer in the fourth.

The Giants picked up their first three runs with two down in the third inning on a walk and singles by Jesus Alou, Mays and Jim Ray Hart.

A. J. Foyt Escapes Injury In Spill

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — It's one down and two to go for A.J. Foyt.

The defending champion of the Indianapolis 500-mile race, who has a "stable" of three racers, spun at the Motor Speedway yesterday when a rear axle broke on his Lotus-Ford. The car slapped the inside wall twice during a 987-foot slide.

But Foyt, 30, of Houston, Tex., walked away with only a scratch on the knee, suffered getting out of the damaged Lotus. Before the auto stopped rolling, Foyt had unfastened his seat belt and was standing up ready to jump out.

"I told myself this thing may be on fire, but it's not going to be Foyt that's burning," he said.

"I'll never drive another one of these cars until we get some gears for them," Foyt added. He complained last week the Lotus was delivering too much power and said a new gear system being developed by a German firm would eliminate the bug.

"These were special gears we had made for this car," a Sheraton-Thompson entry, Foyt explained. "But they're just not built to handle the 500 horsepower this engine produces."

Other Foyt cars entered for the 500 race May 31 are another rear-engine model, the Lola, and the conventional Offenhauser roadster Foyt calls his "antique."

Bunning Beats Spahn; L.A. Tops Cincinnati

By DICK COUCH
Associated Perss Sports Writer

Jim Bunning of the Philadelphia Phils, who made his comeback last year, has temporarily sidetracked Warren Spahn's 1965 revival by beating the great southpaw at his own game.

Bunning, whose perfect game last June 21 against the New York Mets helped him capture National League comeback laurels, returned to Shea Stadium last night and personally outscored the Mets and Spahn 1-0 with an opposite field home run.

The homer was Bunning's first in the league. Spahn has 36, the all-time record for NL pitchers.

Spahn, determined at 44 years of age to bounce back from his 6-13 season with Milwaukee in 1964, pitched his best game as a Met, matching Bunning's four-hitter. But the pitch that Bunning hit over the right field fence in the sixth inning made Spahn a loser for the second time in four decisions.

He is winless in five Shea Stadium appearances over the last two years while Bunning, 6-0 against the Mets over-all, has beaten them three times in New York, allowing a total of nine hits and one-run in the process.

Bunning's homer left him seven behind San Francisco's Willie Mays for the year. Mays hit No. 8, high in the majors, in the Giants' 10-5, 10-inning victory at St. Louis. Milwaukee nipped Houston 2-1 in 14 innings, the Los Angeles Dodgers topped Cincinnati 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 3-1 in other NL games.

Bunning yielded four singles while improving his current record to 2-3. He retired 20 of 21 Met batters during one stretch and wrapped up the victory by striking out the side in the ninth.

"I hit a high curve ball," he said of the home run pitch. "Spahn should know better than to throw a high curve to a country boy — or a good-hitting pitcher."

Dick Farrell, the Houston starter, was struck on the back of the head by Hank Aaron's line drive in the last of the ninth. He finished the inning but was removed for a pinch hitter in the 10th.

Home runs by Dick Tracewski and Ron Fairly helped Sandy Koufax, 3-1, top Cincinnati. Fairly's inside-the-park homer and a two-run shot by Tracewski, both in the fifth inning, sent southpaw Jim O'Toole down to his fourth straight loss.

Chicago's Bob Buhl checked Pittsburgh on three hits for his third victory in four decisions. Jim Pagliaroni's eighth-inning homer ended his shutout bid. George Altman's infield hit, Dick Bertell's squeeze bunt and Ernie Banks' sacrifice fly drove in the Cub runs.

Marin Prep Grid All-Stars Named For Aug. 26 Tilt

Squads for the first Marin County North-South All-Star football game, schedule Thursday night, Aug. 26, at Kentfield, were announced yesterday at a luncheon meeting of the sponsoring Ross Valley Kiwanis Club.

The game will feature the outstanding senior gridders from nine high schools in the county —Terra Linda, Novato, San Rafael, Tomales and the San Rafael Military Academy representing the North and Drake, Marin Catholic, Tamalpais and Redwood representing the South.

Drake and Terra Linda, who finished first and second in the Marin Athletic League last fall, each landed eight players to dominate the 24-man squads that were selected by a committee of head coaches at the schools.

On the North Novato placed seven players, San Rafael High six, San Rafael Military two and Tomales one. For the South, Redwood contributed six players, Marin Catholic five and Tamalpais five.

The games managing director, Bob Troppmann, head coach at Redwood High School, said the Marin All-Star attraction has been approved by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

Coaching the South team will be Bob Franceschini, whose Drake Pirates went undefeated last fall and for the past two years have won 17 of 18 games. Assisting him will be Al Endriss, assistant coach at Redwood.

Pete Limm, whose Terra Linda Trojans lost only one game last season — to Drake in the MAL championship—will coach the North, assisted by Novato's Marlin Olsen. All four coaches were present at yesterday's luncheon at the Woodlands Restaurant in Kentfield.

Troppman said a "kickoff banquet" for the game will be held on Sunday, Aug. 15, at which all 48 players will be assembled for the first time. They then will embark on a 10-day practice schedule with the North training at Terra Linda and the South at Drake.

An awards banquet will be held immediately after the Thursday night, Aug. 26, game.

Admission tickets will be $2 for adults, $1 for student body car holders and 50 cents for children under 12.

John McGlyn, Kiwanis Club chairman for the game, said tickets will be placed on sale throughout the county at locations to be announced at a later date.

Following are the All-Star squads:

Ralph Terry Mows Down Ex-Mates In 4-0 Triumph

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ralph Terry of the Cleveland Indians was so effective in his first start against his former New York Yankee teammates that he struck out one of them with a pitch he doesn't even throw.

Terry, the hero of the 1962 World Series dispatched to Cleveland in the Pedro Ramos trade last season, waited almost seven months for a shot at the Yankees and then spent only an hour and 40 minutes mowing them down on three hits for a 4-0 victory last night.

Strikeout victim Tom Tresh was one of the Yankees impressed with Terry's performance.

"He sure threw me one pitch I've never seen him use before," said Tresh. "He struck me out with a kind of screwball that came up to me and broke down and out."

"I don't throw a screwball," said Terry. "I throw fastballs, curves, and sliders."

Terry, who had a 7-11 record last year, admitted that he was "happy about winning that one but I wanted to make sure I didn't rub it in."

Nevertheless, it seemed like he did.

Terry pitched effortlessly, using only 70 pitches. He allowed only singles, did not walk a man and did not allow a runner past first base while bringing his record to 4-1 and reducing his earned run average to an eye-popping 1.66.

The Chicago White Sox, meanwhile, received strong performances from John Buzhardt and Joe Horlen, each pitching a four-hitter in 4-0 and 4-1 triumphs over Detroit. Camilo Pascual checked Baltimore on six hits in Minnesota's 9-2 victory and the Los Angeles Angels downed Boston 6-4.

Washington and Kansas City were not scheduled.

The Indians had lost 10 straight to the Yankees in Cleveland, but quicker than you can say Whitey Ford they had given Terry more working room than he needed.

Buzhardt, now 3-0, struck out 11 and allowed only one Tiger to reach third base in the opener while Bill Skowron and Ron Hansen supplied home run support. Skowron also doubled and scored another run while Hansen collected another run batted in with a sacrifice fly.

Horlen was tagged for an inside-the-park homer by Dick McAuliffe in the sixth inning and went into the seventh trailing 1-0. Then the White Sox struck for four runs.

Skowron's double, in between two walks issued by Dave Wickersham, loaded the bases. Smoky Burgess drove in two runs with a pinch-hit single before reliever Larry Sherry balked home one run and let in another with a wild pitch.

Pascual, bringing his record to 3-0, struck out eight and walked only one while Zoilo Versalles provided the power with four hits and four RBI. Versalles tripled home a run in the second, slapped a two-run single in the third and doubled home another in the seventh.

The Angels made it seven victories in nine games with rookie Paul Schaal hitting his fifth homer and Willie Smith slamming a double and two singles. Fred Newman got the victory for a 3-1 record with Bob Lee's ninth inning relief help.

No Rec Swimming At Tam Saturday

The swimming portion of the Tamalpais High School Saturday morning recreation program will be closed this week, Director Ed Chavez announced yesterday.

Instead, the pool will be taken over by the outstanding high school swimmers of the area, competing in the Division III, North Coast Section meet all day Saturday.

COLONIAL INVITATION

72 Golfers Chasing The Top Prize

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Seventy-two of the top names in golf — here by invitation only — came to grips today with one of the toughest golf courses on the professional tour, the 7,132-yard Colonial Country Club layout. The winner takes home $20,000.

Julius Boros, the casual 46-year-old ex-accountant, carded a brilliant five-under-par 65 in a pro-amateur yesterday and immediately moved up high on the favored list.

Seeking a second straight tournament victory will be Arnold Palmer, fresh from taking top money in the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas, his first tour triumph in almost a year. He shot a 73 yesterday as a prelude to the main event.

A crowd of more than 5,000 gathered at the spectacular Colonial course to watch the pros warm up for the big tournament.

Looming big in the select field — which includes a large number of youngsters hoping for a big upset — are the three big names from another era: Ben Hogan, Sam Snead and Byron Nelson.

Two big names are missing from the field — Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player. Nicklaus was forced to pass up the tournament to be with his wife, who gave birth to a daughter yesterday. Player is vacationing.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN
I-J Sports Editor

A Day At Golden Gate Fields; The Horse-pitality Was Warm

Tuesday was San Rafael Day at Golden Gate Fields but it should have been called "Jack Alvarado Day" in honor of the manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. Alvarado really cleaned up, and I don't mean the stables.

After our friend left, the directors of GGF held a hurried conference to discuss the possibility of renaming the Albany track "Alvarado Acres."

I'm not saying how much he won but after the seventh race Alvarado had to trade his wheelbarrow in on a new Brink's truck. He spent so much time at the cashier's window people thought he was a walking piggy-bank.

Talk about your handicappers! This guy is phenomenal. Before each race he goes through the racing form with a fine-tooth comb, which may explain why his horses are so well groomed. (Boo!) Then after comparing times of past performances, whirling the figures around in his head for 10 minutes, he comes up with his monumental decision. "Well, this horse is wearing chartreuse and shocking pink and I like those colors." Or, "Hmm, blue and gold is a good combination. Think I'll bet this one across the board."

AS I SAID, Alvarado is a real expert. A colorful bettor. Anyway, he was the hero of the day at San Rafael Day. His best performance came in the seventh race, The San Rafael Day, when he picked Kyreen, the longest shot in the field. Kyreen romped home the winner, paying $39.60, $8.80 and $3.60.

So you see, Alvarado had himself a day. Internal Revenue Service, please note.

GOLDEN GATE Fields director of public relations Herb Phipps was the perfect host to the small group of guests from San Rafael, which included S. R. Chamber of Commerce President Bob Ritter; his wife, Ruth; Alvarado; Miss Gail Crooks of the C of C staff, and the J. Gilmartins.

Phipps turned in the neatest bit of public relations when he casually mentioned two horses he liked. The group took his advice and played his picks. Both won.

Now, that's what I call horse-pitality. With a capital H. And a capital gains.

REDWOOD HIGH'S invitational baseball tournament May 28-29 at San Rafael's Albert Field could be a true "tournament of champions."

All six visiting teams will be champions of their respective leagues and right now Redwood, the host team, is tied for first place in the Marin Athletic League. The visiting champions will come from the Alameda County, North Peninsula, Monterey Bay, Catholic Athletic, Mt. Hamilton and Diablo Valley leagues.

Next year the Marin Athletic League will take over sponsorship of the tournament, the only post-season prep event of its kind in Northern California.

WHEN BILLINGS — Hutchinson Builders, the Marin semi-pro baseball champs, lost to San Quentin prisoners last weekend, Manager Joe Anselmo was a bit upset over what he termed "home town umpiring." Anselmo noted all four umps for the game are serving sentences for robbery. "The outcome of the game was never in doubt," he groaned.

STAN BUCHANAN, member of that great national champion USF cage team of 1955, will join the Redwood High School faculty next fall as an English teacher. Stan will come to Marin from teaching and basketball coaching jobs at Galileo and St. Ignatius high schools in S. F.

COMMITTEE FOR the second annual Marin Tournament of Stars golf event (Sept. 19, Peacock Gap) is dickering for national TV coverage, but will settle for regional video exposure.

Howard Resting In Hospital

Dr. Sidney Gaynor, the Yankees' team physician who performed the operation, said he removed two small chips from the joint of Howard's elbow.

"The operation appears a success," Dr. Gaynor said. "If everything goes according to schedule, Howard should be able to start exercising in three weeks."

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

PITTSFIELD, Mass. — Mike Ryan, 147, Lowell, Mass., outpointed Sammy Campbell, 141, Boston, 8.

STAR OF PHILLY SHOW

Jim Bunning of the Philadelphia Phils poses in the dressing room after his 1-0 victory over the New York Mets and Warren Spahn last night. Bunning gave up only four hits and slugged the game's only run, a homer over the right field wall. It was Bunning who threw a perfect game against the Mets last June. See story on page 20.

Court Fight Resumes On Title Bout

BOSTON (UPI)—A legal battle to determine whether the Cassius Clay-Sonny Liston fight comes off as scheduled May 25 may generate more controversy than the heavyweight title bout itself.

Round two of a hearing on Suffolk County Dist. Atty. Garrett H. Byrne's bid to block the Boston Garden match with a temporary injunction was scheduled to begin today in Superior Court.

Byrne, who claims the fight is being promoted in violation of Massachusetts law, won the first round yesterday when Judge Felix Forte ruled the district attorney was acting properly and had a prima facie case in his petition to have the bout declared a "common nuisance."

Today the judge planned to listen to arguments by attorneys representing principals and promoters of the fight in answer to Byrne's petition.

"I'm not going to agree on anything," Kozol said last night. "Let's come in (to court) tomorrow and have a full blown hearing."

Byrne contended in his petition that Inter-Continental Promotions Inc. of Chester, Pa., was staging the fight in Massachusetts without a license, and that such unlicensed bouts are a "common nuisance."

The petition named Inter-Continental, Boston fight promoter Sam Silverman, Clay, Liston, the Boston Garden-Arena Corp., and the Boston & Maine Railroad, which owns Boston Garden.

Darby Auerbach Is Norcal Champ

Miss Auerbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Auerbach, 32 Lagoon Road, beat Casey Havre of Orinda, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3 in the semi-finals and beat top-seeded Candy Douglas of Santa Rosa 6-3, 9-7 in the finals.

Shasta Catcher Signs With Cards

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Bill Plummer of Anderson, Calif., signed yesterday by the St. Louis Cardinals, has been assigned to their Rock Hill, S. C., farm club. The 18-year-old Plummer was a catcher at Shasta Junior College.

Rebirth Of The Clipper Class Assn.

After a few years of relative inactivity, the Clipper Class Assn. of San Francisco Bay is showing signs of rebirth.

Activity like that which took place soon after marine architect Myron Spaulding of Sausalito designed and built the first Clipper prior to World War II is now taking place.

The San Francisco Yacht Club of Belvedere has the greatest number of participating boats and is serving this season as unofficial Clipper Class Headquarters.

Class officers for 1965 are Tim McGowan of SFYC, president; Kevin Douglas of Corinthian Yacht Club, vice president; Hart Corbett of the Inverness Yacht Club, secretary-treasurer, and Scott Harris of SFYC, measurer.

The Clipper Class has extended an open invitation to all persons interested in competitive one design small yacht racing. Further information can be obtained from any of the association officers.

Marin Catholic Banquet Slated

The annual spring sports banquet for athletes at Marin Catholic High School will be held Thursday, May 13, starting at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Three basketball, three track, a golf and baseball teams all will be feted at the banquet. Master of ceremonies will be Rich Del Tredici, from the class of '59. In charge of reservations is Frank O'Connell of 44 San Gabriel Drive, Fairfax.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Disappointing Trout Opener; May Improve This Weekend

STEVENS

Two phone calls and one letter letter came in asking for information on how to get to the newly-dedicated Juanita Lake. I quoted verbatim from a Fish and Game release, and said release neglected to give directions on how to get to Juanita Lake. So, anyone else who has wondered how to get to Juanita Lake should read the following: Juanita Lake is located about eight miles west of the town of Macdoel which is on Highway 97, 12 miles north of the town of Bray and 11 miles south of Dorris. The lake is in the Klamath National Forest. Okay?

I HAVE no dope on what happened the opening day on Juanita Lake, but I rather imagine the action was on a par with most other highly touted trout openers—not too hot. In fact, the very few reports from the Northern California areas indicated that, while many were on the job in all promising spots in the upper section of the state nearly as many were blown out or frozen out. The consensus among most anglers with whom I have talked is that the coming weekend should prove a great deal better UNLESS another cold front moves into the northern part of the state.

So much for the trout picture; let's just call it a rather disappointing opening weekend and let it go at that.

SORRY, BUT the lowdown on salmon trolling over the weekend and on the first two days of this week is not very encouraging. Quite a few party boats stayed in their respective harbors on Tuesday because of rough water.

TO DATE no reports have come in of what took place on the clam and abalone fronts. A rumor had it that heavy seas helped along the low percentage of clam and abalone hunters' poor showing.

THE FISH and Game commission will adopt regulations for the coming hunting season at a meeting Friday, May 28, 10 a.m. in the main auditorium of the Resources Building, Ninth and "O" streets, in Sacramento. If you have any gripe to air—any suggestions or criticisms—you will be heard and perhaps even heeded, although chances are slim, I'd say.

STRIPED BASS seem to be shunning the local bay waters, and may be migrating to the back country where scattered reports seem to indicate a fair number of bass around, but the weather has caused a big drop in anglers trying their luck. We need a spell of more clement weather to really make a forecast. Perhaps tomorrow will turn the tables.

ANYONE FOR WATER BALLET?

Peggy Larson of Novato, a cute young gal who has been studying synchronized swimming in Hawaii, will teach two classes of water ballet this summer at the Atherton Club in Novato, it was announced by Douglas Hertz, executive director of the club. There will be one team of juniors, 8 through 12, and one team of teen-agers, 13 through 16. Enrollment will be filled on a first come basis.

Water Sports Carnival To Open Redrock Marina

Grand opening program of Richmond's new Redrock Marina, scheduled Sunday, May 23, is beginning to resemble a versatile water sports carnival, it was announced today by Dick Naylor, developer of the modern 250-slip harbor.

A series of short-course races involving several speedy outboard hydroplanes and utility racing classes will be presented by the East Bay Boat Club under sanction of the American Power Boat Assn.

A large fleet of rapid Aqua-Cat sailing catamarans, capable of flying over 20 miles per hour under wind power, will vie in a series of three races in the Marina's ample cove just north of the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

Other racing events are also planned, as are exhibition speed runs by a brand new amphibious inboard-powered ducted fan boat capable of over 60 mph, an outboard powered runabout version of the same hull design, a 14-foot convertible boat that can be used as a sailing sloop, a four-oared rowing dinghy or an outboard trolling or cruising craft.

Meanwhile Naylor said that the first 50 of the harbor's new steel-float berths would be completed by the coming week-end and available for immediate occupancy. Shoreside installations are also nearing completion, he added.

Trailer Show At Cow Palace

A show of interest to hunters and fishermen, the Northern California Mobile Home and Travel Trailer Show, will open Wednesday, May 12, at the San Francisco Cow Palace, and run through Sunday, May 16.

The show will feature more than 100 travel trailers and mobile homes of all sizes from 13 feet up, and in all price ranges from $1,000 up. Many of these travel trailers are ideal for the hunter or fisherman, and sleep up to eight persons.

The show opens weekdays at 2 p.m. and at 10 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for children 6-14, and children under six will be admitted free.

Rohnert Park Golf Tourney This Week

Men's club of the new Rohnert Park golf course near Cotati will stage its first club championship tournament Saturday and Sunday, it was announced yesterday.

Several Marin golfers are expected to compete and entries are still being accepted at the course's pro shop.

Friendship Cup Soccer Sunday

The annual Friendship Cup soccer match between the Mexico City All-Stars and San Francisco will be played at Balboa Stadium in San Francisco Sunday.

Representing San Francisco will be the Scots, champs of the Northern California Soccer League. Game time is 2:30 p.m. In a preliminary game, a German Navy team from Kiel, Germany, faces the Concordia Club.

Tickets, at $2.50 each, are being sold by Peter Stach, manager of the Real Marin soccer team, who lives at 217 El Prado, San Rafael. Children, accompanied by an adult, may see the games free of charge.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Meadow Club Title Tourney Under Way

Mrs. May Is Golf Winner

Mrs. William May won low gross honors Tuesday at Peacock Gap Country club where the women golfers held guest day action. She shot a round of 85.

Famous Dad Comes Around To Daughter's Way Of Thinking

By HARRY J. STATHOS

LONDON (UPI) — Father tried hard to convince his 17-year-old daughter not to become an actress.

He failed.

Her matinee idol father, she says, "spent hours telling me how terrible the film business was, about the frustrations, the heartbreaks and the disillusionment.

"But when he saw he couldn't convince me, he finally came around to my way of thinking. I guess he's resigned to the prospect of my becoming an actress."

With the dream of a great career in front of her, Melissa wants to see the Fairbanks name back on theater marquees. But she says she doesn't want to depend upon the fabled name of her grandfather, the original Douglas Fairbanks, or her father.

"I'd rather not act at all if my talent has to be judged on the fact that I am a Fairbanks," she says.

Melissa, who lets her long blonde hair trail down her back, was bitten by the acting bug at an early age. She acted in school plays until she was about 13 and temporarily "got off the acting kick." But then, at 15, the idea of a film career seemed appealing again.

She says she saw her friends drifting about aimlessly and she realized that she wanted something specific to play for.

"You have to do something or life becomes meaningless," she says. "I don't like to fall in a rut. It's not that I don't want to conform, but I don't like rules to be set down and then you must obey them without question."

Although she was born in Los Angeles, Melissa has lived in Britain most of her life. Her father became a British resident in 1952. She still keeps her American citizenship and she doesn't want anyone to think that she's down on America.

"I don't think a person should give up citizenship without a very good reason," says says. "You can never forget that you're an American.

"But I would rather live in London. I think England is so romantic. I would have liked to have lived here 100 years ago. Oscar Wilde is my complete hero. I love his characters."

She confesses that she has seen only four or five of her father's movies. The one she likes the most is "The Corsican Brothers," in which Fairbanks played a dual role.

As for her grandfather, who died 24 years ago, Melissa says, "Sometimes I can't tell if it's my father or grandfather whenever I watch old movies on television."

"The stage doesn't appeal to me. I don't think there is much challenge in doing the same thing over and over, night after night," she explains.

Needlework Guild Plans Ingathering

The San Rafael Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will celebrate its 70th birthday in charitable work in Marin, on Friday at 2 p.m. at the annual ingathering and tea, at the San Rafael Improvement Club.

Tribute will be paid to the original organizers in a report received from National Headquarters in Philadelphia, listing Mesdames Dennis Donahoe, Sidney V. Smith, Sidney B. Cushing, Robert Walker, W. B. Noble, F. M. Angelotti, T. J. Crowley, L. H. Sweeney, Thomas Wintringham, Harry Wise and Miss M. L. Lucas.

In 1895, 1,427 items were contributed and presented to organizations in both San Francisco and Marin. Agencies receiving aid then and still being assisted were the Presbyterian Orphanage (now Sunny Hills); Sisters of the Holy Family (who then came from San Francisco); St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum (now St. Vincent's School for Boys).

Miss Georgia Wintringham, honorary president, formerly of San Rafael, now residing in Carmel Valley will attend.

Mrs. Arthur Luchetti, president, will be assisted by Mesdames Charles Tacchi, first vice president; John McPhail, second vice president; W. A. Barnes, secretary; and Kenneth Larkins, treasurer. Section presidents will be Mesdames George W. Conners, Carlo Caletti, Helen Ring, Joseph Bersano, Ralph Holchester, John J. Curtin, Louis Walsh, R. L. Griffith and Frank Giubbini, Inverness and Nell McIsaac, Pt. Reyes. Directors will be Mesdames R. W. Allison, F. C. Fisher, Stanley Borges, Bryan Butler, Eudora Codoni, Nora Perse, Catherine Zanoni, Ernest Giono, Esther Cirby, Arthur Fay, Albert McNamara, Robert O'Mara, Frank Kelly, Harold King, D. R. Mercer, Estella Smith and Miss Huldah Moorhead of San Rafael.

The Senior Citizens Sewing Group from San Rafael will display over 400 articles. Wheel chair lap robes, bed jackets, terry cloth bibs, wheel chair bags, bath slippers and night gowns have been made for the aged county patients, and clothes for girls and boys will be presented to various agencies.

Representatives will be present from Sunny Hills, Holy Family Sisters, St. Vincent's School for Boys, St. Dorothy's Rest (summer camp for needy children at Camp Meeker), Social Service Sisters, Sonoma State Hospital and the American Red Cross.

More than 3,000 articles donated by the 500 branch members will be distributed to the needy through these agencies, the object of Needlework Guild.

BUSY OVER BRIDGE TABLES

Bending over their bridge hands yesterday, members of Marin Alpha Phi Alumnae gathered at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon as a part of its dessert bridge event to benefit the Marin County Hearing Assn. Co-chairmen for the day were Mesdames Anthony Guzzardo and Morton Willard. Last year's event enabled the alumnae to purchase a heart model for teaching purposes at Marin General Hospital heart unit.

Rodef Sholom Sisterhood Plans Luncheon And Fashion Show

The Sisterhood of Temple Rodef Sholom will present a luncheon and fashion show on May 20 at the Temple on San Pedro Rd. in San Rafael. The proceeds will be used to send youngsters to Camp Saratoga this summer.

A sherry hour will precede luncheon to be served at noon, and an afternoon of entertainment.

The fashion models will be Temple Rodef Sholom Sisterhood members, Mesdames Leon Fish, M. J. Greenberg, Walter Greisbach, Gerson Jacobs, David Lapidus, Harold Newman, Alvin Siegel, Chester Sipkin, and Alfred Wilmot.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Earl Propheter. Mrs. Phil Brodzinsky is co-ordinating the entertainment, and Mrs. Lewis Richfield is staging the fashion show. Decorations are being made by Mesdames Chester Sipkin, Carl Lee and Herschel Lurie. Mrs. Norman Cypers is publicity and program design chairman.

Luncheon will be prepared by Mrs. Myron Hersko and her committee, Mesdames Henry Pierce, Bruce Wolper, Herschel Lurie, Paul Winton, Leonard Heller, Roy Calder, Morton Avner, Henry Biggers, Sol Capper, Mervyn Cohn, Abe Froman Hyman Fischer, Esther Glueck, Cliff Glicksman, Albert Goldberg, Myron Kaplan, Jerome Kay, Norman Kemp, Jack Melnick, Murray Rayden and Edward Sanders.

Mrs. Larry Landy is reservations chairman and reservations may be made at the Temple office.

Anchor Rugs

Pint and quart cans of a new liquid rubber coating do away with the need to anchor rugs with tacks, strips or binders. The liquid can be applied to the back of a rug with a brush, roller or spray and it forms a permanent rubber film that controls sliding and also strengthens rug fibers and stops fraying.

Mill Valleyan Honored At Tea On Retirement

Mrs. M. E. Wright of Mill Valley, who has retired after 45 years' service with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., was honored at two parties recently.

The first was a tea Thursday given by her co-workers at the Mill Valley office, where she has worked as an operator since 1926, after five years in San Rafael and San Anselmo.

Saturday she was guest of honor at a dinner party at Nero's in Ignacio given by the Communication Workers of America. She received life membership in Communication Workers of America and in the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company Pioneers.

Mrs. Wright is looking forward to being able to spend more time in gardening, sewing and reading.

Seven Novato Gardens On Tour

A tour of seven Novato Gardens will be held on Tuesday sponsored by the Novato Garden Club.

The tour will begin with a dessert luncheon at the Community House in Novato at noon.

Gardens on display will include the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ilion Jones, 538 Rowland Blvd., in a modern design with easy upkeep for casual outdoor living.

The Rudy Larisch home at 27 Shields Ln., borders the creek and natural planting is the background for this garden with shade plants, redwood rounds for the walking area, a waterfall and pool with a huge fire pit for heat after dark in the patio for outdoor entertaining.

At the Robin Cannon home, 890 Tamalpais Ave., Mrs. Cannon's bonsai collection will be on display. A bamboo covering over the patio area gives semi-shade for the outdoor living area.

Sewing Class To Model In Fashion Show

A mother-daughter tea and fashion show will be held at Hill Junior High School in Novato from 1 to 3 p.m. tomorrow in the multi-use room of the school, with 340 girls modeling the fashions they have made in Mrs. Charles Maloney's home economics class.

All seventh grade girls and two classes of eighth grade elective students will take part in the show. Coordinators of the show are Diane Womack and Claudia Studley and commentators, Gloria Lagoy, Jane Eckhoff and Mary Killian.

Featured on the musical program will be Donna Moore, piano selections; Vicki Lankford and Sue Rowell, vocal solos; Pat Bonner, Colleen Watson, Romie Nattrass and Kathi Davis, guitar selections, and incidental music, Beverly Garine, Dana Caruso, Marci Eisenhauer and Wendy Kanoff.

In charge of the tea table will be Wendy Russell and Karen Sooey; stage set, Mrs. Sally Paskow's drama classes; refreshments, Parent-Teacher Assn. members and hostesses, the Letterettes service club.

'IT'S SUMMER' SETS THEME

Mother-Daughter Brunch Set In Tiburon By Phi Gamma Nu

The Phi Gamma Nu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will hold its annual Mother-Daughter brunch on Sunday. The event will take place at the Albin Dittli home in Tiburon from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Giving Medical Board Muscle Is Good Idea

A package of bills, which would increase control over physicians whose conduct endangers the safety of patients, has passed the Senate and is before the Assembly.

We trust that the Assembly will also see fit to approve the bills. The proposed laws (SB 400 to 405) are aimed at curbing the few incompetents and thus bolstering the reputation of the competent and conscientious.

The State Board of Medical Examiners will have the power to take licenses from doctors who are hazards to public health and safety. Up to now, no agency can restrict the practice of an unethical, incompetent or negligent physician.

The public would be protected from incompetent acts by mentally ill physicians, under a provision that permits the board to take action against a doctor if his actions are dangerous to himself and to others. The bill also requires the doctor to take an examination before his license is renewed after treatment.

Five district review committees will be set up under the Board of Medical Examiners to hear disciplinary cases and to prepare a proposed decision for the board.

Senator Stiern's measure would also enable physicians to testify in investigations or proceedings under the state Medical Practices Act.

Up to now, the fear of lawsuits and the difficulty of obtaining evidence keep the medical societies from acting except under extreme circumstances. Neither the witnesses nor the medical society taking action to expel a member would be immune from slander or defamation of character suits.

Many agencies which are now reluctant to assist the Board of Medical Examiners with its disciplinary efforts because of fear of legal action may be more willing, with the passage of the new laws.

We welcome the new measures. The public at large will be protected from the incompetents and the unscrupulous. And the weeding out of the few undesirables will increase the stature of the medical profession in the eyes of the public.

ATOM RESEARCHER AN AID TO POLICE

Silver threads among the gold may trap future criminals if a new atomic method of testing human hair proves effective.

At least 17 metals, including silver and gold, can be found in normal human hair. Chemical analysis and examination under the microscope are still the ordinary ways of identifying strands found at the scene of a crime.

The new method can detect traces too small to be discovered chemically. Neutrons, which form part of the atom, are used to make previously neutral atoms of human hair radioactive. Then they can be identified.

A basic factor in identifying individuals is that no two persons are exactly alike. Each has been endowed by the Creator with distinct personal attributes given to no other.

Reflect on the particular abilities God has given you and use them constructively. Recognize also the unique characteristics of others—physical, intellectual and moral. Then treat them with due respect.

"But as for you, the very hairs of your head are all numbered." (Matthew 10:30)

Assist me to discover my own powers, O Lord, and then to apply them for the good of all.

SACRAMENTO SCENE

First Hint Of Scandal Hits Alcoholic Beverage Control

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—For the first time since the state department of alcoholic beverage control and its appeals board came into existence on Jan. 1, 1955, the hint of a scandal at a high level has developed.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown announced this week he has accepted resignations of two members of the ABC appeals board, Arthur W. Belcher, chairman, and Robert H. Haden, a member. In addition, Dominic Tavaglione, resigned as a member of the state athletic commission, which supervises boxing and wrestling in the state.

THE STORY on Belcher and Haden began on March 23 when they attended a dinner party in a La Mesa bowling alley, which Tavaglione had arranged. They were guests of the licensees who are before the ABC department for disciplinary action. The case involves alleged transfer of stock, after the license was issued, to persons who earlier were refused a liquor license.

Should the department order any penalty for the La Mesa licensees, it presumably would be appealed to the ABC appeals board.

An informant notified James O. Reimel of the dinner party and Reimel forwarded the information to Governor Brown promptly. On March 25, Brown's office announced Belcher and Haden had resigned. There was a bit of pulling and hauling after that as to whether they actually had resigned, and whether Brown had accepted the resignations.

THE UPSHOT was that Brown asked the attorney general to investigate the case thoroughly and he received the results of this probe only recently.

"There is no suggestion in any of the material (from the AG) that the two members have acted improperly in any of the hundreds of cases they have considered in their official capacities," Brown said. "As a matter of fact, the evidence indicates they have done outstanding jobs.

"The attorney general's material also makes it clear they did not violate any law," Brown's statement continued. "It indicates too that they were not asked to do anything contrary to their oaths of office.

"But in accepting an invitation to dine at an establishment which faced charges of violating liquor regulations and in permitting the owner of the establishment to pay for their meal and drinks, they exercised poor judgment," he said. "I have, therefore, accepted the resignations of Mr. Haden and Mr. Belcher which were tendered to me on March 25."

BROWN SAID the AG's report on Tavaglione was similar and noted that, had Tavaglione acted in the case only as a private citizen, there would be no reason to question his role.

"However, as a member of the athletic commission, Mr. Tavaglione is an officer of the state of California and under these circumstances there may be cause to question whether he showed good judgment," he said. "He has submitted his resignation. I have accepted it."

Not many of the various boards and commissions are in such a sensitive area as is the ABC board and, under the circumstances, Brown's action was about the only course he could take.

Auditor-Controller Hits Hotel Tax

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Marin County Board of Supervisors recently adopted a 4 per cent hotel-motel tax, effective Oct. 1, 1965, which would be applicable to the unincorporated area of the County.

The basis for such adoption related to a bill introduced which would impose such a tax state-wide, returning said tax to the State coffers. Our Board took local action in order to pre-empt the State's right to this revenue and currently have held off the publication of the locally adopted ordinance for 30 days, pending final determination as to whether or not such a bill will go through Sacramento.

As Chief Accounting and Disbursing Officer of the County, I am emphatically against such a tax, which I would label "bureaucratic" in nature. The current annual estimated yield to the County of Marin would only be $8,000, and I would estimate that the administrative cost of collecting, completely enforcing, auditing, including overhead, to be approximately $5,000. . . .

It seems to me that Marin County should encourage industry of all sorts and, particularly, hotel-motel operations. . . .

The above type of industry, as is agreed to by all tax experts, contributes substantially to the businesses of Marin County and pays rather substantial amounts of property taxes. This can help Marin property owners since services required from such a type of industry do not greatly add to the cost of government such as schools, which consist of the major portion of our property tax bills.

In conclusion, I feel that we should do everything possible to attract hotels and motels to Marin County, creating a convention center which will benefit all property owners and help defray rising property tax requirements. The absence of a hotel-motel tax in Marin County can be just the lure, in some cases, of attracting this type of industry.

Frouge Applauds Editorial Stand

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial on Marincello in the April 24 issue of the Independent-Journal has been sent to me, and I want to thank you for taking the position you did.

We who have spent so much time on our Master Plan have been quite upset at the emotional attitude taken by many of those people who oppose Marincello, and I am certain that your editorial will have great weight with the Marin County officials who are considering our plan.

We ask only calm and judicial consideration, and I believe your comments will help bring this about.

Still Time Left For Viet Parley

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . The president said that the bombing of our embassy will only stiffen our resolve to fight on until victory. Yet he expects that "our" bombing of the Vietnamese will LESSEN their motivation in the fight for their homeland.

The State Department's White Paper claims that hostilities in South Viet Nam began in 1959 as "a brutal campaign of terror and armed attack inspired, directed, supplied and controlled by the Communist regime in Hanoi." But it was the late President Diem's abolition (as our puppet) of the elected South Viet Nam village councils in 1956 which made South Viet Nam a true dictatorship and alienated a majority of the population. In response, the full-scale rebellion began in 1957 by South Vietnamese patriots. . . .

Our intervention in this civil war, on the side of a government unacceptable to its people and its enormously powerful neighbors, can only prolong the agony of the Vietnamese people and increase the burning hatred which the Southeast Asian peasant has for the "white man."

It is still not too late to negotiate with the Viet Cong, and stop the senseless bombing of North Viet Nam. There will be no peace until the governments in China's sphere of influence are acceptable to her. Our hydrogen bombs are futile when we face a "people's war" unless we wish to adopt Hitler's "final solution" — genocide.

Lazy Dog's Bite Called Devilish

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Did you ever hear of the Lazy Dog?

The Lazy Dog is a new weapon which, it is now officially (The New Republic, April 17, 1965) admitted, we are using in Viet Nam. It is a large canister which explodes 30 feet above the ground, and sends up to 10,000 steel darts shooting through the air. Each dart spins at high speed, and can kill over an area of 800 square yards. Beyond that it merely maims, amputating a leg more swiftly than could a surgeon's knife.

It will be argued that our opponents also use cruel and painful instruments of death. With all their Oriental cunning, I doubt if they have thought of anything more devilish than this.

We had better open our eyes and look around us, and see what we are doing. This kind of thing can only unite the world against us. Far better to leave Viet Nam and pull our old self-respect up out of the moral cesspool it has fallen into.

Marincello Furor Muddies Waters

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I want to commend the Independent-Journal for its editorial on Marincello last Saturday (April 24).

We can only solve the growth problems of Marin County with rational and calm thinking. The emotional furor of the opponents of this plan muddies the waters and prevents proper consideration of Marincello.

PRODUCER JULIUS Monk essayed one tiny role in a movie between staging revues at New York's Plaza Hotel, and was highly pleased when a girl at his dry cleaning establishment hazarded, "Didn't I see you this week in the movies?" "You certainly did," beamed Monk. "Aha," nodded the girl, "I thought I recognized the suit!"

THEY'RE STILL telling stories about George Horace Lorimer, long-time editor of the Saturday Evening Post in the days of its glory. Lorimer knew exactly what he wanted—and what his readers did, too—and woe betided any author who tried to tamper with his formula. The author who probably sold Lorimer more stories than any other three Post contributors combined was Clarence Buddington Kelland. Kelland met Lorimer one day at lunch and told him, "I'll have my new serial ready to deliver to you in two weeks." "Good," enthused Lorimer. "Don't go changing that plot."

Johnson Can Lean On Monroe, Truman Doctrines In Crises

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Lyndon B. Johnson, whether or not Asians or Latin Americans like it, has the Truman and Monroe doctrines to lean on in seeking to justify his use of troops in the Dominican Republic and Viet Nam.

He sounds like an echo of Presidents Harry Truman and James Monroe. But, while the Truman doctrine started small and got big, the long-lasting Monroe Doctrine got twisted.

IN 1832 MONROE, promising no U.S. interference in Europe, warned Europeans not to interfere with the independence of Latin-American countries. This plunged the United States into more than a century of isolationism.

Eventually there was some hypocrisy in the way the United States practiced the Monroe Doctrine. Although still insisting all outsiders must keep hands off Latin America, it interfered there for more than a generation after 1895.

President Theodore Roosevelt summed up the expansionist American mood in the early part of this century. He said he would "show those dagos (in Latin America) they will have to behave decently."

AMERICAN interference left a long legacy of Latin-American bitterness. One example: From 1916 until 1924 the United States occupied the Dominican Republic with Marines, keeping it under military rule.

In 1947 President Truman ended isolationism by abandoning that part of the Monroe Doctrine which said the United States would not interfere in Europe but retained the part against all outside interference in Latin America.

ALTHOUGH this is having it both ways, Truman told Congress: "I believe it must be the policy of the United States to support free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or outside pressures."

This was after the war when all Eastern Europe had been gobbled by communism, Communist guerrillas were tearing Greece apart, and Turkey was in danger. Truman said, "Should we fail to aid Greece and Turkey in this fateful hour, the effect will be far-reaching to the West as well as to the East."

This at once became, and still is, the American policy of trying to stop communism cold wherever it pushes. Truman made it a matter of American self-interest, a matter of survival, to stop any Communist encroachment anywhere.

THE RESULT: Aid to Greece and Turkey; the Marshall Plan for Europe; smashing the Berlin blockade imposed by the Soviet Union; the Korean war; the NATO alliance; and, later, an association to protect Southeast Asia.

Truman made his doctrine, which started with Europe, world-wide by fighting the war in Korea to save it from communism and helping the Nationalist Chinese on Formosa stay free from Red China.

Thus, in sending troops into South Viet Nam, Johnson has simply extended the Truman doctrine one more step. He has extended the Truman doctrine, combined with the Monroe Doctrine, to the Dominican Republic.

U.S. Aid To Egypt Kept From People

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The best-kept secret in the United Arab Republic appears to be the U.S. aid program—especially our vast shipments of surplus farm commodities.

WHILE THIS country's controversial aid to Egypt has stirred up a series a headline-making debates in Congress, the average Egyptian citizen has never read or heard about the $890.5 million the U.S. has poured into Cairo since 1953.

That's the eye-popping finding the Senate Appropriations Committee, now reviewing President Gamal Abdel Nasser's handling of such aid, will soon make to the Senate.

An on-the-spot survey by the committee's crack investigative staff reveals that the Nasser regime has barred all publicity about the U.S. aid program, including the delivery of $697.5 million in surplus farm commodities since the 1950s.

NO OFFICIAL publicity is given other U.S. economic assistance, consisting of long-term, low-interest loans, grants, credits and technical aid.

In sharp contrast, Nasser has gone out of his way time and again to highlight both Soviet arms aid and credits and economic help for the Aswan Dam.

In speech after speech, Nasser has extolled Russia and its satellites for their aid, but has never mentioned the vast U.S. assistance propping up his shaky economy.

ACCORDING TO the Senate probers, their polls in Cairo and outlying rural areas indicate that the man-on-the-street has no knowledge of the huge quantities of U.S. surplus food deliveries. They reported that before the food is distributed in Egypt, all U.S. markings are carefully removed from the packages.

Interviews with government officials also revealed that only a few knew anything about these shipments or where they came from. None of the authorities were willing to see that the U.S. food deliveries got any local publicity.

To lift this Nasser-imposed blackout, the senators plan to write into the new foreign aid appropriation bill a requirement that Egypt either publicize the U.S. food shipments and economic aid or the program be ended.

THIS CONGRESSIONAL rider, if approved, could be a major roadblock in Nasser's new request for $500 million of food over a three-year period.

The request, forwarded to the U.S. on an informal basis, is under consideration by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and his chief policy-makers.

Under present arrangements U.S. farm commodities are sold to Egypt for its own currency, with more than 90 per cent of this money returned to Nasser for development projects in his country. A small amount is used to pay for U.S. embassy expenses in Cairo.

EMIR MOHAMMED Iban Hussein, commander of the Royalist forces opposing 50,000 Egyptian troops in Yemen, is conducting a brilliantly conceived defensive operation against Nasser's forces. Despite Egypt's use of Russian-built Ilyushin bombers and MIG jets, the Royalists have forced Nasser's troops to retreat from most of their strong points in eastern Yemen. The Royalists are obtaining their weapons from Iran and Saudi Arabia.

President Johnson has sent President Nasser several personal messages urging peaceful development of the Jordan River and "equitable" distribution of the river's waters between the Arab states and Israel.

Phillips Talbot, assistant secretary of state for Near East and South Asian affairs, recently called on Nasser to withdraw his troops from Yemen but was rebuffed.

Getting Teachers, Students To Be Friendly Is Problem

Students and teachers at the College of Marin would probably like to be friends, and through the years there have been attempts to push them together, like reluctant children at dancing school.

And, as with the dancing school, there's a great deal of awkwardness. By the time a student can feel at ease talking to a teacher, graduation time has rolled around.

ONE OF the persons pushthe "buddy" system at the College of Marin has been political science instructor Sam Schwartz. Last semester and this, he has done his best to create situations, usually discussion group meetings, where teachers and students can get together and discuss some subjects.

In addition, Schwartz has been faculty representative for the student organization, Friends of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating committee. He himself has been to Mississippi.

His latest attempt to bring teachers and students together is the "philosophy seminar," a monthly meeting at which a student or teacher will give a paper on original thought or research and then he opens the question.

THE FIRST of these was held on campus a week ago, and seemed something less than a success. Teachers seem to have trouble talking to each other, let alone to students, outside the classroom.

Attendance was small but several teachers who attended came out enthusiastic about Schwartz' idea, saying it had been needed a long time.

Schwartz, sitting in his office several months ago, once complained that seldom did a student even make use of an instructor's office hours.

ASKED IF he had ever attended a beer bust thrown by students, Schwartz said he and his wife had, once, but had left early because they felt "out of place." A teacher must maintain an air of decorum whenever students are in sight.

The students are in a difficult position too. All through elementary and high school, they have been expected to regard the teacher, openly at least, with a great deal of respect. A student who was too friendly with a teacher came under suspicion..

Suddenly, in college, some new teacher - student relationship is expected to come into being automatically. Meanwhile teachers feel hurt because no one visits them during office hours.

What teachers may have to do is to find some way to make themselves vulnerable at the teen-agers level, so that for a time the relationship between superiors and inferiors will be reversed. Only after that, perhaps, will teachers gain acceptance by students as friends.

There is a question whether all this is worth the bother. There is a question whether some teachers at the college would really like to recapture their lost youth. Anyway, the atmosphere is pretty artificial.

GOP Elders Not Too Pleased With Outlook For Future

WASHINGTON — During a campaign you follow the ball better by sitting in the bleachers and exchanging comments with John Q. Public than by listening to the professional politico. The pro is so emotionally involved that his eyes are where his heart is: Even with two out in the last of the ninth and his side 19 runs behind, a scratch infield single looks to him like the start of a winning rally.

Thus in 1960, after just a few days in New York, I wrote that the Empire State was in the Kennedy bag and that the GOP might better concentrate on more promising areas—an impression that grew firmer every day. And yet Nelson Rockefeller, on the very eve of election, wired Dick Nixon that there had been a dramatic reversal in the last weeks and that Dick could now count on New York's electoral votes.

BUT BETWEEN battles the pro's vision is a sound 20-20. And here at the Capitol I've had an opportunity to talk with a goodly number of them on both sides of the aisle: Officeholders and their staffs (and never discount the latter), researchers for different committees and various state and city party dignitaries. What follows as a starter—I plan to present the other viewpoints in subsequent columns—is a digest of the thinking of GOP elders.

The most striking fact is that none of these elders expects victory in 1968, and indeed many doubt they will live to see a GOP president again. To them the "unholy alliance" of the Demos with labor and the so-called minorities—both of which groups they deem more interested in "What's in it for me?" rather than "What's in it for America?" plus the immense power accruing to the big-city machines as a result of reapportionment.

If the Old Guard is torn emotionally, remember it believes with all its heart that, unless the trend is reversed, the Republic must fall. And yet it can see only two possibilities for such a reversal and can not conscientiously wish for either of them.

The first is the LBJ's domestic spending policy may bring us to bankruptcy and a frightful depression, and the elders literally shudder at the thought and pray they are wrong.

AND THE SECOND is the danger of a calamitous defeat, either militarily or psychologically, in foreign affairs. They back whole - heartedly LBJ's current moves in Viet Nam—and are quick to point out he is following the very Goldwater approach he derided—but fear the Morse-Fulbright wing may yet force him into another Laos sellout.

What then will these men do? Well, some will hold firm to their convictions even though that means going down with the ship. Others will bend a little in what they consider a necessary strategic withdrawal: One conservative stalwart, whose recent vote repudiated his expressed philosophy, showed me a newspaper poll taken at the World's Fair. To the question, "Does a welfare state destroy individual initiative?" 63.2 per cent voted yes; yet to "Should retirement under Social Security be lowered to age 60?" the same folk also voted yes by 60.7 per cent.

"AND THAT," said the congressman, "is the dilemma. Their first answer indicates they still cherish the American spirit of standing on your own two feet. But the second shows the erosion of that spirit: They have seen pressure groups crying 'Gimme! Gimme!' and getting food and housing and education at a fractional cost of what they themselves were paying. And now they'd like a little gravy for themselves.

"Either, then, I bend a little in the hope that I can eventually appeal again to the sound basic instinct that warns them that when everybody gets gravy without paying for it, soon there is neither meat nor gravy. Or I am beaten at the polls.

"All right, I'm not a hero—but if I run away now, maybe I can fight another day. But if all conservatives stand up bravely and die now, the fight is lost forever."

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Mars.

Sigmund Freud, the Austrian neurologist, was born on this date in 1856.

On this day in history:

In 1935, the Works Progress Administration was created by Congress to provide work for the unemployed through a series of projects supported by public funds.

In 1937, the German dirigible Hindenburg exploded at Lakehurst, N.J. Thirty-six passengers died.

A thought for the day—British author Oliver Goldsmith once said: "Such is the patriot's boast, where'er we roam, his first, best country ever is, at home."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Hold Up Play Works Well For Defenders At Bridge

Most bridge players imagine that there is a big difference between offensive and defensive play.

Actually, practically all of the declarer's plays can be used effectively by the defenders. A good example may be seen in a hand played a couple of months ago in the 1965 Intercollegiate Tournament.

| South | West | North | East |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 ♣ | Pass | 1 ◇ | Pass |
| 2 NT | Pass | 3 NT | All Pass |

Opening lead — ♠ J

South wins the first trick with the queen of spades and leads the nine of diamonds for a finesse. East's play at this trick determines his fate.

TAKES TRICK

South wins with the king of spades and leads his other diamond to force out the ace. If East refuses the trick, dummy can continue the suit.

South can get back to dummy with the ace of spades to take the rest of the diamonds. He gets three diamonds, three spades, two hearts and two clubs.

REFUSES TRICK

Now the diamonds never come in. If South leads another diamond, East wins with the queen.

THIRD DIAMOND

Declarer can get to dummy with the ace of spades to lead a third diamond, if he likes, but he can never get back to dummy to run the good diamonds.

The point is that a defender should hold up for just the same reason that declarer usually holds up—to prevent a long suit from being run against him.

DAILY QUESTION

♠ K Q 4
♥ A K 8 6
♦ 9 4
♣ A K 4 2

Answer: Bid four hearts.

This kind of jump to game by the opening bidder shows about 19 or 20 points, with at least four trumps. The distribution is usually fairly balanced, since a player who has a singleton or void suit should try to suggest his distribution by bidding three suits. Responder should think about a slam if he has roughly the strength of an opening bid.

WORLD WAR II VETERANS!!

Your right to purchase a home, using your G.I. loan, will expire July 1, 1967.

There are available in Marin County many homes that may be purchased under a "No Down Payment" to veteran buyers.

Prime interest rate of 5¼ per cent per annum.

Your only cash outlay is "closing costs."

If you have used your G.I. loan, you may be still eligible for another veteran's loan.

Your eligibility and qualifications for a G.I. loan can be determined in a few days. Time is also running out on Korean War veterans.

Terra Linda

GALLAGHER-STURIALE
Terra Linda's Own Realtor

$26,950
Beat this price for a home this size located in the Terra Linda pool dist. and just 3 blocks to the new shopping center and school. New w/w carpet in living room and owner will paint all three bedrooms if you want. Nice fam. kitch. with eating area. Huge yard. Exclusive!

$27,500—Eichler Honey
3 double size bedrooms, 2 full baths, separate 12 x 18 family room with separate outside entrance. 22 x 14 living room, with beautiful w/w carpets, drapes, huge double garage. Immediate occupancy, excellent financing.

$30,850—Original Kenney Brookwood
The most popular model home built in the last 7 years in Terra Linda. Located just two blocks from the new Northgate Shopping Center and S.F. commute bus. A well established neighborhood with beautiful landscaping, and its own porch. This 3 bedroom, 2 bath, sep. family room model has had a sep. 7 x 12 laundry room added, plus additional storage in the garage. At the price, this one is a sleeper.

Custom Rancher
Located just 2 blks. from school, playground, and new shopping center. Only four blks to the pool. Attractive used brick front with large overhangs. Exceptional landscaping with a sheltered and secluded patio — Detached Dbl. car garage. New step into the 16 x 21 living room with w/w carpet and a used brick floor to ceiling fireplace. The all-elec. kitch. has a 8 x 10 eating area with a used brick indoor BBQ. All 3 bedrooms are individual and different. Two full baths. Master bedroom suite opens out to beautiful garden and patio with a 21' porch. Not another like it in Terra Linda. Only $30,875.

$31,500—Pool and Patio
Here is a spring special! 3 large bedrooms, 2 full baths, and custom built 18 x 20 family room with a raised hearth brick fireplace, sliding glass doors out to the patio & pool. Close to the kitchen, so no traffic thru living room. Beautifully landscaped. Double garage.

Some People
like a corner lot, others say no, but when you see this no-low maintenance beautifully landscaped lot you'll say yes. Not a large yard, just a nice one. Not a clean home—an immaculate one with all the extras that go into a former model home. Heavy shake roof, terrazzo tile floor in the separate step-down family room. Beautiful brick fireplace. Three dbl. sized bedrooms with a special door from the master bedroom to the garden and patio not usually found in this model. Now locate all of this within 2 blks. of school, shopping, and playground and you'll wonder how we can sell this for only $31,950.

Pee Wee Park
in the heart of Terra Linda a completely private park-like patio and yard on a large corner lot, plus screened-in year round BBQ area and entertainment patio—Truly Marin living at its best. Now add a beautiful 3 Bed, 2 Bath contemporary home with a separate dining room and a beautiful raised hearth corner fireplace. Add to this, a separate 4th bedroom or office just off the garage and you have one of the best buys in Terra Linda. $31,950.

Kenney Pacifica
Level corner lot, professionally landscaped, this 2-year-old beauty is the most for the money. 4 huge bdrms., 2 large baths, all-elect. kitchen, W/W carpets and custom drapes. Nice separate family room. $32,450.

ABANDONED STRONGHOLD — Crouched next to the south tower of the Golden Gate Bridge is old Fort Point. It was once the nation's strongest bastion west of the Mississippi. Plans are now afoot to make it a historical museum.

RAMPARTS OF YESTERYEAR — This is the barbette tier on top deck of old Fort Point. The fort was completed in 1861 to guard San Francisco's Golden Gate. Projected plans call for establishment of a historical museum.

Plans Under Way To Make Old Fort Point Into Museum

If ghosts stalk San Francisco Bay, surely the military ones must frequent Fort Point, guardian of the Golden Gate. The explorer Juan Bautista de Anza commanded here in the twilight of Spanish conquest. So did Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston, before he resigned his commission to join the Confederacy and die at Shiloh.

A western Sumter, Fort Point's four tiers of cannon never spoke in anger. Its seven-foot thick walls never felt a foeman's shell. The acid sea-air has bitten deep into fluted iron columns and graceful railings that line the great inner court. Obsolete almost before it was finished, the brick-and-masonry stronghold is at a crossroads in time: It must disintegrate — or be restored as a military museum.

The Fort Point Museum Association thinks that would be appropriate. The bastion under the Golden Gate Bridge has seen three forts since Captain Anza planted the True Cross there in 1776. The first one, of adobe mud, lasted only two years. The second, El Castillo de San Joaquin, was built by the Spanish in 1794 to offset a threat from the British, represented by Capt. George Vancouver.

Alas, the Castillo "rested on sand and decaying rock; the brick-faced adobe walls crumbled . . . whenever a salute was fired," and only two of its 13 cannon were capable of sending a ball across the mile of strait. Otto von Kotzebue noted in 1824: "I found St. Joachim on his rocky throne, truly a very peaceful and well disposed saint; no one of his cannon in condition to fire a single shot."

The garrison (one corporal and six artillerymen) was removed to Sonoma in 1835, and decay proceeded. When war with Mexico seemed imminent in 1846, El Castillo underwent its final indignity. Swashbuckling Capt. John Charles Fremont sneaked over from Sausalito in a launch and spiked its remaining cannon.

Once California achieved statehood, the crumbling stronghold gained new importance. Army engineers in sidewhiskers surveyed its site from all angles, recommended reconstruction. Work started in 1854 and was finished by 1858. During that period, $3,200,000 was spent on Fort Point (as it was now called) and it s 2,000-foot granite seawall. Thus the fort assumed its present appearance.

In its heyday, Fort Point was a formidable obstacle. It mounted 127 guns, including 8- and 10-inch Columbaids and a bristling array of 32- and 42-pounders. It had furnaces for heating shot, quarters for officers, men "and laundresses"; stables and storehouses.

When the Civil War broke out (and Johnston left for the South) the new commanding officer was ordered to "fire upon and sink" any vessel flying the secession flag which might try to force the Golden Gate. For a time, there was real danger that England might enter the war and make an attempt with her far-flung fleet.

The threat never materialized, though there was some nervousness due to a marauding Confederate warship. The Shenandoah lurked about and sank several whalers, but Fort Point's batteries kept "secessh" Capt. James Waddell at a respectful distance.

After Appomatox, Fort Points's usefulness came to an end. Most of its garrison was moved to more comfortable quarters in the Presidio nearby. Breech-loading and disappearing Coast Artillery pieces made the mighty Columbiads obsolete. Larger batteries were built on the hillsides around the brick fortress. Finally in 1901 the old cannon were sold for scrap.

Today the fort is a quiet place, frequented by fishermen and gulls. The Golden Gate Bridge arches over it, dwarfing barbettes and bastions. Moss encrusts the bricks, and the mortar is flaking away. The surf has gnawed off chunks of the seawall on the Pacific side.

Still Fort Point holds fascination for the history-minded visitor, and with special permission from Sixth U.S. Army's public information office in the Presidio, occasional parties are allowed to penetrate its fastnesses.

Unhallowed types can walk down to it from the bridge's south plaza or drive out to the seawall through the Presidio. Then they may gaze up at the 45-foot towers, peer through gunslits, or marvel at the iron-studded double doors.

But until the Fort Point Museum Association finds an "angel," someone who'll make the historic relic safe for occupancy with $300,000 to $400,000 in cash, the general public must stay outside.

Helpers Really Pretty Thirsty

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A trailer truck's load shifted at a slight downgrade and 1,900 cans of beer spilled onto the intersection.

Before the driver could stop, motorists and pedestrians scooped up all the beer and fled.

"I thought they were going to help salvage the load," Edmund Vandercasteller Jr., said yesterday, "but by the time I got the truck out of the line of traffic, there was nothing left to salvage."

Seven Plays Slated By Tam Drama Group

Tomorrow, starting at 8:30 p.m., "White Butterfly," "Impromptu" and "Angel Child" will be produced. Saturday "Happy Journey," "Supressed Desires," "Trysting Place" and "Sandbox" will be presented. Productions will be in Ruby Scott Auditorium. Admission will be charged, according to student David Gilliam.

Four Get Cash For Suggestions

Four Marinites have been presented with cash awards by the Army Corps of Engineers, San Francisco, for work improvement suggestions and outstanding performance records.

Novato residents Isaac C. Campbell of 397 Alameda del Prado, and Grover R. Partee of 48 Lauren Avenue, were among 11 persons sharing a $300 group service award for "pioneering the field of automation as applied to engineering processes."

An outstanding performance award of $100 went to Norman H. Roderick of 488 Calle Arboleda, Novato, and a $15 improvement suggestion prize was awarded to Edwin C. Walker of 220 Canal Street, San Rafael.

Arson Suspected In Armory Blaze

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A fire apparently set by an arsonist destroyed 15 military vehicles at the National Guard Armory last night.

Guardsmen saved more than a hundred other trucks, some of which were afire, when they rushed onto the field and drove them away from the flames and exploding gas tanks. There were no injuries.

Two eyewitnesses saw a man climb an eight-foot chain link fence with a container under his arm shortly before the fire started, according to a Guard spokesman.

Five Marinites On U.S. Jury

Five Marin residents have been named to a 23-member federal grand jury in San Francisco U.S. District Court Judge Alfonso J. Zirpoli. The five, who will serve from May through September are:

Joseph J. Immel, a collection agency salesman of 630 Point San Pedro Road, San Rafael; Allan B. Murray, an insurance salesman of 309 Palm Avenue, Kentfield; Bernice E. Rada, an office worker of 2012 Fourth Street, San Rafael; Edward T. Stoner, a systems analyst of 11 Sunnyview Avenue, San Anselmo, and Wilfred D. Wamsley, a stock broker of 40 South Ridgewood Road, Kentfield.

Robert G. Little, son of Mrs. Lucretia Little of Mill Valley, has received a $2,600 award to allow him to do continued research in kinetics at New York University at Buffalo, N. Y. He is now in his first year of three working toward a doctorate in chemistry.

A research assistant in chemistry, Little was graduated in 1964 from University of California at Davis. He is also a Tamalpais High School graduate.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Reader Told To Look On Bright Side When In Change Of Life

VAN DELLEN

A reader writes: "I am 51 years old and have been going through the change of life for about four years. It seems the last six months have been more disturbing in some ways. I'm restless, uneasy in the stomach, sweat profusely, and have spells of excessive warmth with a desire for fresh, cold air, both night and day."

Since we do not have a practical test for the menopause, it is difficult to determine whether these symptoms are due to anxiety or the change. Symptoms due to a gradual slowing of ovarian function and cessation of menstruation are the most consistent manifestations. The diminished output of sex hormones leads to hot flushes and sweats. These are most troublesome but easy to control with hormones. Our writer should be happy she is a housewife and not a receptionist, saleswoman, or an executive. It is embarrassing to develop spells of excessive warmth and sweating when dealing with the public.

ON THE OTHER hand, nervousness, irritability, restlessness, insomnia, and aching should not be attributed to the shrinking ovaries. The same can be said of palpitation, difficulty in breathing, and uneasiness in the stomach region. These signs usually are of nervous or emotional origin. Those bothered along this line probably had similar or related complaints long before the menopause began. Many women prefer to blame the climacteric because it is a more acceptable cause.

The psychic aspect of the menopause are not entirely coincidental. The middle-aged woman is entitled to be concerned about the appearance of gray hair and wrinkles. The children are leaving for homes of their own and she fears there is little enjoyment left in life. In addition, there are problems associated with aging, and the change of life triggers the button that sets off the bomb.

WOMEN SHOULD concentrate on the good things associated with the menopause. It is not a disease, and symptoms are transient. They should be thankful to be relieved of the discomforts accompanying menstruation and concern about pregnancy.

RUPTURED NECK ARTERY

Worried writes: I am 58 years old. During my usual medical checkup, the company doctor discovered a ruptured artery in my neck. Will an operation be necessary?

REPLY

There are many arteries in the neck; some supply blood to organs that are more vital than others, including the brain. Ask the company doctor to answer these questions.

STOMACH CAPACITY

REPLY

This is difficult to determine because the organ stretches. In addition, some of the contents escape into the intestines as we eat. According to one authority, the stomach holds one quart, but I know persons with a bigger capacity than this.

WHO COUNTED THEM?

REPLY

Not many if your scalp is like mine. The average adult scalp contains about 120,000 hairs (don't ask me who counted them). Blondes have approximately 140,000, redheads 90,000, and brunettes, 110,000.

FROZEN OR FRESH

REPLY

Chamber Orchestra To Give Concert

The San Rafael Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Hugo Rinaldi, will present the last of its "Connoisseur Concerts" at 8 p.m., May 16 in Angelico Hall of Dominican College in San Rafael.

Guest artists will be William Sabattini on French horn and Francis Wiener Shorr on violin. The concert is sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation and Park Department in cooperation with American Federation of Musicians, Local 6.

Ross Valley Sewer Relocation Planned

Directors of the Ross Valley Sanitary District last night agreed to start work on plans to relocate a sewer line on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard between Wolfe Grade and Laurel Grove Avenue, where a county street-widening project is planned.

Plans for sewer service for the Cypress Glen subdivision in Ross near Poplar Avenue were

TELEVISION REVIEW

Early Bird Contains Build-In Morality

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—A principal message of the new Early Bird satellite, now in its first week of television use, is that technology has a sort of built-in morality of its own which often drives man to do good in spite of himself.

For example, this achievement of the ability now to have continuous people-to-people contact on a transatlantic basis is certainly the work of human beings—but basically of technicians, urged on by a few men with vision, yet working mainly in terms of scientific advancement. It is in the nature of science that men do not invent principles or achieve—merely discover what is already there and possible. Thus, the built-in morality.

The most important thing about Early Bird is that it is on a course with the most important thing in television—not entertainment or even news or sports events individually, but the combinations of contact that enable human beings around the globe to know each other better, to reduce the ignorance that creates fear and hatred. If television fails in this, nothing else it does will matter. But technology is on its side, and this is often a better guarantee and hope than men.

Thus the impersonality of the sky above may have enormous effect on the mud below. The television shows across the oceans will be important only in the way they cumulatively create a basic way of thinking that has a wider scope than the provincialism and parochialism now endured. President Johnson's "Great Society" will not be allowed to be isolated. That built-in morality again.

Early Bird is merely a logical extension of television's technological story in that the medium has a quantitative rather than a qualitative importance through nothing but exposure made ever and ever greater by technical progress only. This is not flattering.

San Rafael Booklet Published

Mother's Day Frog Jump Set In Marin

A Mother's Day frog jump, preliminary to the Jumping Frog Jubilee in Calaveras County later this month, is scheduled for Sunday in the parking lot adjacent to the Tiburon Playhouse from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Trophies will be given for the best jumping frogs and the winner will be eligible to compete in the finals at Angels Camp, May 20-23.

Children's Art To Be Exhibited

An exhibit entitled "Sand Box Art," composed of paintings, collages, drawings and wood construction by 3 to 7-year-olds, will be on display at the Showcase Galleries, 5607 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, starting May 15.

Artists are children from the Formative Years Training School in Mill Valley and Larkspur, the Cooperative Nursery Schools of Corte Madera and San Anselmo, Neil Cummins School in Corte Madera and other Marin County youngsters, according to Mary Case, co-director of the gallery.

The show will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays and Saturdays, and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sundays.

TB Nurses Workshop Set At Peacock Country Club

Dr. Leonard Schatzman, sociologist-phychiatrist at University of California Medical Center School of Nursing, will open the Marin Tuberculosis Assn.'s third annual Nurses Workshop May 12 at Peacock Gap Country Club.

He will answer the workshop's theme question: "The Long-Term Patient in an Acute Hospital—Whose Problem?"

Reacting to Dr. Schatzman's comments will be a panel comprised of Mrs. Ilona Bellack, director of nurses, San Rafael General Hospital; Dr. Laurence Schechter, Marin orthopedic surgeon; Ethelyn Sellinger of Sausalito, assistant chief, U.C. Department of Social Work; Nancy Mount, R.N., hospital nurse, and Moderator Anne Wiebe, R.N., of the U.C. School of Nursing faculty.

Afternoon speakers will be Dr. Donald Brown, regional chief, State Department of Mental Hygiene, who will delineate "The Scope of the Short-Doyle Act"; Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director, Marin Community Mental Health Services, which he will edscribe; Sandra Smith, R.N., U.C. School of Nursing, to talk on "Acute Nurses with Chronic Patients."

Both social workers and nurses will attend this year's workshop, which falls on the 145th anniversary of Florence Nightingale's birth. Co-sponsor is the Marin Association for Mental Health.

Registration will start at 8:30 a.m. and conclusion is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Luncheon reservation are due by Friday, at the TB association office, 1010 Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

'Oklahoma!' Profit

A profit of $350 was made by the Redwood High School student body for presentation of the musical "Oklahoma!" to a total audience of 1,100 last March.

Naval Reserve Open House Set

The headquarters will be open to the public at 8 p.m. Electronics equipment and simulated shipboard devices used by the unit for training purposes will be demonstrated and a film depicting the latest advancements in the Navy will be shown.
